HOLD SERVICES TODAY FOR PAIR WHO DIED IN TRAILER FIRE

Funeral services were held today at 2 o'clock at the Wilson Funeral Home, Fairfield, with the Rev. Robert Paden officiating, for Jean Linn and Joan Ann Bobo, aged four months and 11 days, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bobo.

The children burned to death early Wednesday afternoon when their trailer home along the Fairfield Rd. was destroyed by fire. Interment was made in the Fairfield Union Cemetery.

The two little girls were sleeping in a crib in the rear of the double trailer home when the fire occurred. The mother had gone to another trailer home at the trailer park of Mrs. Mary Gulden. Mrs. Bobo is employed at night.

While she was gone briefly, the twins and three other small children, the oldest aged four, were in the trailer alone.

DROPPED BURNING PAPER

Gettysburg Assistant Fire Chief Charles J. Kerrigan said the four-year-old boy later told firemen that he attempted to put a piece of paper in the kerosene stove and, when it caught fire, dropped the paper to the floor. The youngster, Jeffrey Bobo, and his younger sisters, Sandra and Brenda, ran out of the trailer, garbed only in light clothes and barefoot, to the trailer of Mrs. Gulden.

The mother of the children and others in the trailer camp ran to the Bobo trailer, but the fire, starting just inside the front door of the trailer, drove them back and they were unable to get to the rear room of the living quarters to rescue the twins. The fire spread rapidly and by the time firemen arrived the home was a mass of flames.

After the rear portion of the trailer had been consumed, the firemen found the charred re-

COUNTY HOME GUESTS LIKE THERAPY WORK

Rapidly growing interest in the occupational therapy program on the part of guests at the Adams County Home was reported to members of the County Home Auxiliary at its December meeting at the home Tuesday afternoon.

New officers were installed and the auxiliary heard from one of its committees that provision has been made for all women guests at the home to have permanents before Christmas if they desire them. Four already have been scheduled.

In the absence of the Rev. Donald Harper, the retiring president, the meeting was presided over by the incoming president, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, who opened the meeting with prayer. Officers' reports were presented by the treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Smith, and Mrs. Lloyd Garretson, substituting for Mrs. Violet Hughes as secretary. It was announced that 1963 dues are payable now and notices will be sent out soon.

LAUDS ORGANIZATION

It was Mrs. Charles Bollinger who presented the report for the beauticians' committee on the plans for the pre-holiday permanents. The auxiliary talked over plans to have bells installed at exit doors at the home.

Mrs. Paul Redcay, reporting for the arts and crafts committee, said guests at the home are "greatly interested" in the occupational therapy program now being presented two days a week at the home by Mrs. George Engelke through arrangements made by the county commissioners.

A written annual report was presented for the Rev. Mr. Harper in which he said that "through the splendid and remarkable efforts of dedicated persons such as are a part of this auxiliary and as are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jordan (supervisors in charge) this county home cannot be looked upon as an undesirable place in which to live."

"RESPECT, COOPERATION"

The report continued: "In the past year I have been continually amazed at the response of the good people and organizations of this county as they have worked through Mrs. Ira Henderson and her activities committee to pro-

The Franklin County court told him he is to make restitution there in the amount of $5 per week beginning a month after any sentence he may receive in any other court. XMAS THEME DEPICTED IN FLORAL TALK

Mrs. A. H. Good, florist of Twin Bridges Farms, spoke on "Floral Arrangements for the Holidays" at a meeting of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg at the YWCA Wednesday afternoon.

She made several arrangements to be used in the home during the Yule season, using candles, evergreens, fresh flowers, satin decorations, Christmas balls and figurines.

As she worked, she explained the meaning behind the many flowers and plants used for such seasonal arrangements: Ivy meaning God and the Trinity; candles or lamps representing the light of the word of God; the rose for the divine love of God; the star showing the decision of God to send Christ into the world; straw to depict the lowly barnstable; dry fern to indicate the Old Testament; fresh fern to indicate the New Testament; the white dove to signify Mary's gift to the temple at the time of Christ's purification; wheat and grapes as the miracles of God; the wreath of evergreen meaning the undying faith of Christ; evergreen branches as triumph over death and mistletoe depicting peace.

Mrs. Good was introduced by Mrs. Frederic Griest, member of the garden committee which sponsored the program. The members of this committee made Christmas corsages which were given to each of the 80 members in attendance.

Christmas carols were led by Mrs. Henry M. Scharf with Mrs. John A. MacPhail as accompanist. Mrs. Guile W. Lefever read a

Army Truck Is Damaged In Crash

Damage totaled $650 but no one was reported injured when two trucks collided 3½ miles east of Blue Ridge Summit on the Sunshine Trail in Liberty Twp. Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

VOICE TAPES CONCERT FOR WORLD AIRING

The Voice of America will tape the annual Christmas concert of the Mount St. Mary's Schola Cantorum, Emmitsburg, for the third year in a row. The program, featuring tenor solist Maynard Spedden, will be presented in the college chapel on December 16 at 8 p.m. and is open to the public. The Voice of America will rebroadcast the concert throughout the world.

Rev. Dr. David W. Shaum, professor of music, will direct the Schola and Rt. Rev. Msgr. George D. Mulcahy, rector of the seminary, will speak briefly.

3 PART PROGRAM

The concert will be a three-part presentation: "The Word," "The Witness" and "The Liturgy." Highlight of the program will be excerpts from Benjamin Britten's Saint Nicholas Cantata with Spedden handling the solo passages. Written in 1948, the libretto is based on legendary incidents in the life of St. Nicholas. The chorus and soloist describe his miraculous adventures with the vivid conviction of eyewitnesses, transforming themselves into contrasting characters of the drama as it unfolds and drawing the separate threads of the story together with each climax of their prayer and praise.

In the final offering the congregation will join the choristers in "O, Come All Ye Faithful." The "Tantum Ergo" and Bach's "Final Chorale from the passion according to St. John" will complete the program.

NEW STUDENT PAPER ISSUED

"The Gettysburg Review," a new student publication, appeared on the Gettysburg College campus today with its first issue, a 40-page booklet published by the Student Senate.

In an editor's note, the purpose of the new organ is "to publish the best of submitted student academic work in order to acquaint other students and faculty members with such material."

The Student Senate on the campus last spring created an Academic Publishing Board which appointed an editorial staff to prepare, edit and publish the new journal. Stephen Whetstone is the first editor and Thomas West is his assistant. Donna Gillespie is in charge of subscriptions; Toby Jo Oren, circulation, and Edward J. Baskerville and R. Donald Lindaman are the advisers.

The Magic Of Christmas Toys Will Thrill Adults As Well As Children

A visit to Gettysburg toy departments this year makes you wish you were still a kid!

Two things are outstanding in the selection offered for today's children. Toys are more mechanical than they used to be, and they lean toward the space world.

Little girls, however, will continue to be "good little housekeepers and mothers!"

The selection of dolls has become rather limited in the past week, and nearly all toys have been slashed drastically in price. . . in many cases to half or less than they were a few days ago. A few rubber dolls are available at $2.50 and dolls that sing, walk, or talk are priced as high as $7.50.

SWINGING CRADLE

But the process of shopping for a little girl only begins with the purchase of a doll, and what comes as a consequence is phenomenal!

For instance, a battery-powered swinging cradle at $5.99 provides the little mother with leisure time to serve her friends cotton candy from a powered machine no playhouse should be without at $8.87. Card tables and folding chairs at $8.67 are sturdy enough for tea parties, and stoves, refrigerators and kitchen cabinets comprise a modern kitchen for as little as $2.69 to $7. Doll play pens at $1.89 make doll-sitting a breeze and an electric sewing machine at $5.67 makes mending a pleasure!

CHORD ORGAN

The youngster who requires cultural relaxation will find great joy in a chord organ at $21.83, or in a grand piano at $2.67.

A battery operated sweeper that actually sounds like a sweeper sells for $1.89 and Ben Casey medical kits keep the doll family healthy for $5.67.

The ultimate for the status-conscious little girl is a "teen-age doll sports car" at $4.95!

The field for boys broadens each year with scientific and mechanical inventions of the world. From a "Special Agent" kit at $3.66 complete with tommy gun, automatic pistol, handcuffs, badge and identification folder that makes every little G-man an Eliot Ness, to an atomic sub at $8.33, parents can settle back and trust the younger generation to save the world!

Mariner II Nears Magic Moment In Space, Close Look At Neighbor, Venus

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mariner II now approaches its magic moment in space. The frail, bug-like explorer—seared by the nearness of the sun—is ready for a first, close look at a neighbor pllanet, earth's cloud-veiled sister Venus.

At 3:10 p.m. (EST) Friday Mariner is to pass some 20,000 miles from Venus—give or take a few thousand miles.

For half an hour its instruments will measure radio and heat radiations from below the dense cloluds that hide the planet from sight.

It is an historic moment in man's probing farther and farther into his solalr system. Even now a Soviet space probe is pushing toward Mars for a closer look at that planet.

HAD TROUBLES

Mariner has weathered a series of troubles, but with one of its solar panels out of operation, it is about to complete its mission.

Mariner is already holder of all records for long distance radio communication through space. When it reports back from Venus, it will set a new record—radio signals from a man-made device 36 million miles away.

This all began on Aug. 27 when an Atlas-Agena B rocket compllelx boosted Mariner into space.

On Oct. 31, almost 12 million miles from earth, Mariner radioed that its power production had dropped. Technicians guessed that one of the solar panels, which convert sunlight into electricity, had developed a short circuit. They commanded Mariner to cease its electricity-consuming science experiments while they pondered the problem.

POWER REVIVES

On Nov. 7, they decided to renew the experiments, since they seemed to be getting enough power from the remaining solar panel. Suddenly the short-solar panel began operating again, and tech-

HUNTERSTOWN BLAZE CALLS 3 COMPANIES AT NOON TODAY

Fire this afternoon badly damaged the home of Horace Criswell in Hunterstown. No immediate estimate of the damage was made but the fire practically gutted the second floor and attic of the house and badly damaged the kitchen.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started in the kitchen ceiling and burned up to the attic.

Gettysburg, Bonneauville and Biglerville firemen were called to extinguish the blaze and used booster tanks and water from Ford's pond.

BLAME WIRING

Mrs. Criswell and her brother, Elton "Bud" Wilt, had been engaged in thawing frozen pipes and believed an overload on wiring may have caused the fire.

Mr. Criswell, a foreman for the state Highway Department, was called to his home.

Much of the furnishings downstairs was removed by Mr. Wilt, Criswell, Mrs. Criswell and neighbors. Upstairs furniture was damaged by fire and water.

Firemen said the damage would run into "thousands of dollars" due to the fire burning through the paneled kitchen and through the roof. Some of the wall siding was damaged, part of which had to be removed in fighting the fire.

JUST 16 SCHOOL PLANS OKAYED BY PA. COUNCIL

HARRISBURG (AP)—With the initial deadline just three weeks away, only 16 counties have had their school district reorganization plans approved. Four others have been rejected.

The State Council of Education Wednesday approved nine county plans and rejected three others.

Dr. Herbert E. Bryan, director of the school reorganization bureau, said six more counties have plans ready for consideration. He said about 44 counties will meet the Jan. 1 deadline under the 1961 reorganization act.

MAY BE MORATORIUM

According to the law,any county failing to submit its own plan would lose the right to do so and the council would take over.

However, Gov.-elect William W. Scranton has said he favors a one-year moratorium of the various deadlines in the act. Many Republican legislators have voiced support for the proposal.

Plans approved Wednesday were submitted by Bradford, Crawford, Fulton, Greene, Luzerne, Monroe, Perry, Potter and Snyder Counties.

Rejected were the plans of Bedford, Elk and Susquehanna Counties.

6 AWAIT ACTION

Awaiting action are the plans of Chester, Clinton, Huntingdon, Lawrence, Union and Wyoming Counties.

Besides action on the 12 county plans Wednesday, the council also:

—Rejected a request by a group of taxpayers in Bonneauville, a new Adams County borough, to establish the borough as a separate school district. (Only 18 of the 179 children in the predominantly Roman Catholic area attend public school.)

—Finished the statewide education television map by adding Clearfield County to the Pennsylvania State University region and creating a seventh-region—called "Northern"—of McKean, Potter, Tioga, Bradford, Susquehanna, Elk, Cameron and Sullivan Counties.

TITO TALKS TO SOVIET RULERS

MOSCOW (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia addressed the Soviet Parliament today and approved Soviet Premier Khrushchev's handling of the Cuban crisis. This seemed certain to incase Communist Chinese anger at the Soviet leadership.

The Yugoslav leader, expelled from the Communist fold as a "deviationist" by Stalin in 1948, told the Supreme Soviet that Kremlin and Yugoslav points of view "on all major international questions coincide or are close to each other."

Tito's appearance followed an address by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in which, echoing Khrushchev's major policy speech, he suggested the U.S.S.R. wanted to negotiate a settlement of the West Berlin issue. He said Moscow is setting no deadline.

The 1,443-member Supreme Soviet wound up its four-day session by approving a sweeping reorganization of the Soviet economic structure and accepting the U.S.S.R. 86.6-billion-ruble budget for the ensuing year. The Parliament approved Khrushchev's moves to consolidate economic controls in a newly created National Economic Council. It also apprved Khrushchev's "peaceful coexistence" policies.

G. E. SOKOLSKY PASSES AWAY ON WEDNESDAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Veteran columnist George E. Sokolsky, 69, died Wednesday night in his Manhattan apartment. A leading spokesman for American conservatism, his writings appeared in 229 newspapers across the country.

Plagued by heart trouble, diabetes and the cancer to which he had lost a kidney, Sokolsky succumbed in the study of his home while making a phone call. His daughter, Mrs. Donald Feuerstein, was with him when he was stricken. His wife, Dorothy, was in another room.

FOE OF REDS

A relentless foe of domestic and international Communism, the bushy-haired Sokolsky drew from a world of experience in writing his six-day-a-week column and in a varied career that included stints as a radio commentator and lecturer.

He had been in Russia during the early struggles for political power that culminated in communism's victory there, and he worked for many years in China.

Graduating from Columbia University in 1917, he went on a globe-trotting tour that took him through revolution-racked Russia and restless China, where he finally settled down in 1920 to a 10-year stint as a political correspondent of the North China Daily News in Shanghai.

MARRIED TWICE

It was there that he met and married his first wife, Chinese-born, English-educated Rosalind Phang. She died in 1933 after bearing him a son, Eric.

When he returned to the United States, Sokolsky delivered a series of lectures on what he had seen in the Orient.

In the 1930s, Sokolsky wrote a column for the New York Herald Tribune. During this time, he also wrote five books.

In 1940, he began writing a nationally syndicated column for the New York Sun. Shortly after that paper ceased publication in 1950, his column, "These Days," started in the New York Journal American.

Funeral services are incomplete.

RED PREMIER PICKS UP TITO VS. OLD FOES

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev has declared war on the ideological views of Communist China and Albania and publicly made his peace with his old enemy in the Communist camp, Yugoslav President Tito.

In his speech to the Supreme Soviet Wednesday Khrushchev outlined to his people for the first time the details of his feud with the dissenting Chinese and Albanians.

Khrushchev declared that dogmatism, a Communist synonym for the extreme views of the Chinese, had become just as dangerous as revisionism, a word applied to such independent Communist thinking such as Yugoslavia's.

FUTURE STRUGGLE

He swore that, from now on, "Soviet Communists, to whom there is nothing higher than unity of the ranks of the world Communist movement, will fight resolutely against both right-wing and left-wing opportunism, which today is no less dangerous than revisionism."

In an open affront to the anti-Titoist Chinese and Albanians, Khrushchev declared Soviet friendship for the Yugoslav Communists.

This drew an approving nod from Tito, seated behind him on the stage, and loud applause from the deputies of the Supreme Soviet.

BLAMES STALIN

Khrushchev blamed Stalin for the differences that led to Yugoslavia's expulsion from the Communist camp in 1948.

"But our Yugoslav comrades were not wholly blameless," he added.

"There are still serious divergencies on a number of ideological questions, he continued, but recent moves in Yugoslav domestic and foreign policy have "eliminated much of what we regarded as erroneous and as prejudicing the cause of building socialism (communism) in Yugoslavia."

He apparently was referring to Tito's recent economic reforms, tightening central controls over decentralized Yugoslav industries, and his close support of Soviet foreign policy stands.

ACCUSES CHINA

While never mentioning the Chinese by name, Khrushchev accused them of "sinking deeper and deeper in the quagmire of leftist opportunism, splitting tactics and sectarianism."

"In the crisis over Cuba, Yugoslav Communists took a correct position, whereas dogmatists who pose as true Marxists-Leninists took a provocative position," he said.

"What the crisis in Cuba has shown is that the main danger was represented by those who stood and stand on dogmatic positions."

"STORMY TIMES"

There have been times when at each turning . . . everything went wrong . . . and my searching heart was sad . . . completely void of song . . . times when each arrow went amiss . . . far from the target range . . . and with the dawning of each day . . . I prayed for some slight change . . . but nothing seemed to happen . . . except the same old thing . . . all I had left was faith and hope . . . to which I'll always cling . . . and then when least expected . . . the tide began to turn . . . some good luck smiled upon me . . . my failures made me learn . . . that's how it goes in this old world . . . we drift, then go ashore . . . there have been very stormy times . . . I'm sure there will be more.

Mariner II

nicians decided the short-circuit had corrected itself. The next day they turned the experiments on again.

On Nov. 15, a solar panel went out again. Mariner continues on one solar panel.

Toward the end of November, temperatures on the sunward face of the solar panels were up to 200 degrees Fahrenheit, with spacecraft temperatures 100 degrees on the shady side. By Friday, experts estimate temperatures on the solar panels will reach 250 degrees.

In spite of all the troubles, Mariner has already earned its keep. It has measured the climate of space on its 182-million-mile journey.

Instruments showed that there is a continual wind of sparse, but fast-moving, particles blowing from the sun. Most of the solar particles were traveling between 950,000 and 1,550,000 miles an hour.

A few particles were found to be traveling nearly three million miles an hour.

Icy Blasts Lash U.S. From Canadian Border Into Deep South; Crops Are Damaged

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A huge mass of arctic air enveloped the entire eastern half of the nation today. The damaging and tragic effects of the prolonged late autumn cold wave and snowstorm mounted.

The unseasonably cold weather persisted from the northern borders deep into the South, causing inconvenience to millions.

Damage to property and to vegetable crops in Florida was estimated in the millions of dollars. The continued cold threatened the multimillion-dollar citrus crop. Temperatures ranged from the teens in northern Florida to the 30s and 40s in southern sections.

MANY DEATHS

Deaths in connection with the severe weather in the last week soared to near the 100 mark — with some estimates as high as 150.

The biting cold air dropped temperatures to record low levels for the season and for the date in many areas. The South was especially hard hit by the icy blasts.

The main core of the arctic air was in the northern Gulf states. The mercury plunged to 11 below in Crossville, in eastern Tennessee. Temperatures along the coast dipped to the middle teens. Readings of zero were reported in north Georgia and in mountain areas of Alabama.

CHILDREN PERISH

Eleven persons, including several children, perished in fires in Georgia. A fire killed a family of five, including a 3-day-old baby, in Dalton as the mercury dropped to zero. Three children huddling around an open fireplace to keep warm perished in a fire that destroyed a four-room frame house in Gainesville.

More snow fell in the snow-clogged sections of the Northeast and strong winds added to the mountanous drifts. Colder weather swept into the main snowbelt which covered areas along the south and east shores of the Great Lakes in Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York State. Depths ranged up to from 20 to 48 inches after a week of steady snow. Five inches of fresh snow was dumped on Ashtabula County, Ohio.

MORE ON WAY

There was a slight moderation from the subzero cold in most of the North Central region, but forecasters said that more cold air was on the way and the relief would be of short duration.

Zero or below readings extended across areas in Indiana, most of Ohio, sections of Kentucky, Tennessee, Southern Illinois and upstate New York. Zero to 10 above temperatures prevailed in New England except along coastal areas.

The coldest weather in 22 years was reported in Tallahassee, Fla., this morning as the mercury dropped to 14 above. The 23 in Daytona Beach was the lowest ever for December and the coldest day in more than 18 years. It also was 23 in Tampa, the lowest mark in 15 years.

27 DIE IN OHIO

Ohio counted 27 storm-related deaths. The death toll in Indiana was 14. Missouri reported four deaths. Most of the fatalities in connection with the snowstorm and cold were caused in traffic accidents on snow-packed or ice-covered highways or from overexertion while shoveling snow.

The mercury dipped to 4 above in Atlanta this morning, the coldest weather in more than 12 years. Wednesday's high was 15, the lowest maximum reading for Atlanta since January 1918. Some streams and lakes in Georgia were frozen over. A few school systems closed because of heating problems.

COUNTY HOME

vide for the needs of residents of the home. Mrs. Henderson has done a fine job. It has become apparent to me that the auxiliary has the respect and thus the cooperation of the entire county or else such a response would not be made.

"The work of Mrs. Kuhn and her committee in doing such a good job on our annual supper and our visitation day was just tremendous. We have assisted in supplying a barber's chair for the residents. Four new television sets were purchased and installed.

"One of our most important and meaningful accomplishments has been our working with the county commissioners in establishing the therapy program for the residents. Mrs. Redcay and her committee deserve our sincere thanks for the work they have done in helping to get this program established. It is heartening to see how the folks of the home are finding new interests and projects to help pass their time. Mrs. Engelke, the therapist, is doing a very fine piece of work and I would hope that the auxiliary would continue to give her whatever support is needed."

STATE OFFERS HELP

Arrival of plastic splints purchased by the ambulance board for $58 was reported and use of the splints was demonstrated. The splints consist simply of plastic which can be inflated to hold a broken bone in place until a patient can be removed by ambulance to the hospital. A zipper arrangement on the plastic splint permits its removal without moving the broken limb.

Two propositions for membership were received. Secretary Weaver announced that there were three vacancies in the department following the resignation of Robert Steinberger because of inability to be active in company affairs and the retirement of former Fire Chief Donald McSherry on both age and number of years of membership.

Francis Smith, delegate to the state association of firemen from the local department, said he had received word from the state association asking if it could assist in any way in activities in connection with next year's battle anniversary centennial. Secretary Weaver was asked to reply to the state organization's request.

DINNER FEB. 12

Glenn Raffensperger reported the annual ladies' night banquet of the firemen will be held February 12 at 6:30 p.m. at the Moose home.

William DeHaas said $345.46 was collected during the annual Muscular Dystrophy door-to-door campaign. He added that donations are still being mailed to him by local individuals and businesses.

Named to the duty roster for next month's meeting were Jack L. Miller, Roy Milhimes, Bradley Morelock, Harry Mort, Darryl Mummert and John Murray.

APPEAL FOR DONATIONS

The sorrowing family, deprived by the fire of all their possessions and clothing other than what they wore, went to the home of Mrs. Bobo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Deardorff, Fairfield R. 1, to stay until they can find new quarters.

Firemen made an appeal for donations of clothing and furniture for the family and suggested that perhaps Christmas toys for the remainder of the children might be donated. Donations may be left at the Gettysburg fire house.

Gettysburg and Fairfield firemen joined in the battle against the blaze and prevented the spread of the fire to an auto parked less than two feet from the structure. They estimated damage to the trailer and furnishings at $2,000.

STOVE STILL BURNING

After the fire had burned away the southern and the west sides of the structure, firemen entered the kitchen portion of structure through the opening made by the burning away of the wall and found the stove still burning properly.

Surviving the twins are their parents, Paul and Mary Louise (Deardorff) Bobo; two brothers, Robert and Jeffrey, two sisters, Sandra and Brenda; the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. 4 INJURED IN MIDWAY CRASH

Four persons received minor injuries in an automobile crash in the 300 block of Third Street, Midway, at 8:15 a.m. Wednesday. All were enroute to school when the mishap occurred.

Conewago Township police said the four were passengers in an automobile operated by Robert F. Smith, 17, Hanover, which while traveling west on Third Street struck a parked car owned by Bernard F. Alban, 363 Third Street, in front of the Alban home.

The injured were Patricia Smith, 15, and Sally Shrader, 16, Hanover, both students at Delone Catholic High School, and Diana Smith, 12, Abbottstown, and Alan Zinn, 8, of Hanover, both enrolled at St. Joseph's Academy, McSherrystown. Alan Zinn had lacerations of the upper lip and the girls sustained bruises of both legs.

Smith and another passenger, Jeffrey Walter, 14 Hanover, both also students at Delone High School, were not injured, police reported.

Police said the Smith car had damage estimated at $200. The Alban car was severely damaged, police said, but no estimate was available.

Members of the Midway Fire Co. were summoned to wash gasoline from the cars off the street. The street surface was then salted and sanded by the firemen.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The two-week period ending December 12 gives young Brame the lead for the fourteen-day sales and also the first place position for the entire campaign being conducted by the 20 carriers. During the last two weeks he sold 24,504 stamps and for the 12-month period his sales total 149,628 stamps.

Mercury Sinks To 15 Above: Light snow fell here Saturday night and Sunday morning and the mercury dropped to 15 above zero for Gettysburg and Adams County's second cold spell of the season. The previous cold spell, December 3, sent the mercury to nine above zero, the coldest for the year. The light snow clung to highways and roads were unusually slippery. Cinder crews were busy most of Sunday morning covering dangerous curves and hills and intersections. For the most part traffic moved slowly. Two accidents on icy roads were reported.

Two More County Soldiers In Africa: Two more Adams county soldiers are known to be with the American Expeditionary Forces in North Africa.

Lieutenant Clarence W. Epley Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Epley, Chambersburg street, was with an amphibian task force when the Yankees seized almost one thousand miles of African shore. Lieutenant Epley is the youngest Adams countian to be commissioned in the armed forces. He notified his parents last week of his safe arrival in Africa.

Prive First Class John G. Sponseller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sponseller, Sr., Greenmount, also is with the American forces in Africa. His parents received word from the soldier that he was "safe in Africa."

Local Families Change Residence: Mr. and Mrs. Barton H. Foth are moving today from West Broadway to an apartment in the First National bank building.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Bream, East Broadway, expect to move on Thursday into the former Foth home which they purchased recently.

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce N. Wolff moved Monday from a third floor apartment in the Plank building, Baltimore street, to the former home of the late Mrs. Lena Grecht, which the Wolffs' purchased recently, at 248 Springs avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reed have moved into the former Wolff apartment from a second floor apartment in the same building.

Soldiers May Send Flowers Via Red Cross: Fresh cut flowers will be delivered to the Adams county homes of a number of soldiers who are serving overseas, through a special service being offered overseas soldiers by the Red Cross.

The Red Cross will accept from the soldiers abroad $3 to cover the delivery of fresh, cut flowers to their parents or any other designated person on Christmas Day. The soldiers also may send a message with the flowers. The Red Cross abroad sends the order through to the local Red Cross chapter which makes the selection of the flowers and arranges for delivery on December 25. The first flower order from a county boy overseas was received by the Red Cross chapter here Monday.

Mail Here Hits All-Time Peak: Mail directed to and coming from Adams countians in the armed forces has played a major part in setting an all-time high for the volume of Christmas mail at the Gettysburg post office. Postmaster C. A. Williams and his assistant, George P. Black, said this morning that the volume of business—based on stamp sale receipts—at the local office is about 16 per cent above that for the corresponding period last year and the 1941 holiday rush here broke all previous records. A check on letter cancellations for a recent five-day period at the local office showed a one-third increase over the figures for the corresponding days of last year. The peak of the incoming mail is expected Monday or Tuesday.

Eleven extra temporary employes began work at the local post office this morning, three more started this afternoon and still another will report Saturday or Monday.

Miss Barton To Get Commission: Miss Virginia Barton, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. J. L. Barton, Broadway, will be commissioned a 3rd Officer in the WACCs (Women's Army Auxiliary corps) at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, on Thursday, it was announced today.

Miss Barton entered the Fort Des Moines training school last September after passing all mental and physical tests for that branch of the service early in August. Since that time she has been undergoing a vigorous training period preparatory to being commissioned. Miss Barton expects to be given a ten-day furlough beginning December 28.

UNFOLDINGS

Precious things are usually hidden. You have to unwrap them, unfold them, or dig deep into some mysterious cavern for them.

Last spring I recall standing beside a plant and studying its buds. They were round and tight. I remembered the blooms of the yesteryears and marvelled at such small buds — for in another month those small round balls of concealed beauty would be open, and all their lovely foliage of color and soft fragrance would be manifest. Each day I watched the unfoldings with fascinated interest.

Who can look upon the face and into the actions of a baby and not be thrilled with the unfolding of that personality? For many years I watched the unfolding of the characters and abilities of my twin boys at school. Even a business unfolds.

But the wonder of wonders is the unfolding of the mind and heart! When they unfold naturally, even in the midst of the storms and suns of the days, they are sure to present beauty and strength. It is natural for people to have clean, healthy minds and hearts. It is only when the outside insects of destruction and death bore away through the coverings that the unfolding process is so retarded that symmetry and natural development are damaged.

The unfolding of spring is the great event of any new year. And the great event of the mind and heart is when knowledge is unfolded and when love begins to open its eyes!

When we look upon beauty, everything within us seems to unfold, and even the body reacts, grows firmer in strength and is girded against terror. Even our faith is illumined thereby!

And so do I believe that the soul unfolds. We know so little about its unfolding, but the very concealment of its growth, its mysterious mission with us, is a revelation of its presence and its promise!

Just Folks

THE HUMBLING SNEEZE

When dignified I try to be
Somehow it always seems to me
That fate or chance or destiny,
Or even all of these,
Combined with every breeze that blows
Set up a tickling in my nose,
Till—sh-shshsh—and all my splendor goes
In one terrific sneeze.

Some men can master high silk hats
And purple shirts and red cravats,
And some in tails and pearl-gray spats
Are seldom ill at ease,
But never yet have I been frocked
Like that but what the folks I've shocked
And chapel wall and rafter rocked
With one tremendous sneeze.

I wonder just what tyrants do
Who seem so grave in public view,
To dodge those spasms of "kerchoo"
Which lesser mortals seize?
How do they manage still to pose
When just a tickling of the nose
May prove them, unto friend and foes,
Mere subjects of a sneeze?

Special care to keep very small children and elderly people safe from fire during the holiday season is urged by the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Studies show that the highest death rate by fire is among persons 65 years and older, and the second highest rate is among children under 14.

Small children never should be left alone, the National Board said. And elderly people should not be left alone if they are infirm or unable to take care of themselves.

* * *

Everyone in the family— especially children and elderly persons—should know how to get out of the house or apartment quickly if fire occurs. Everyone should be familiar with at least two routes of escape. If one exit is blocked, the alternate route may be used.

The phone number of the fire department should be kept close to the telephone, and family members should know how to call the fire department.

If fire occurs, the first step should be to get everybody out of the house. The head of the household, the baby sitter, or the adult in charge, should make sure that everyone, including small children, is led outside and told firmly not to re-enter the building. Be certain the fire department is summoned—and that all have been evacuated from the burning structure.

* * *

Paradoxically, fire is most helpful but also cruelest during the winter months. The cold weather season—when heating units are in operation—is the time of year when a large share of the human suffering and property damage is caused by fire.

Most of the nation's fire toll in ives and injuries is needless.

Studies show that every 10th fire in the United States is caused by a defective heating unit.

* * *

1—Inspect your basement or furnace room and throw out old paint pails, oily rags, newspapers, magazines, or other combustibe rubble that may be stored there.

2—If the heating unit was not checked before winter started, call your serviceman and have it inspected now.

3—If even a faint fuel odor arises from your heating plant, call a qualified heating man immediately to check your flue pipes, vent connections and chimney.

4—If you use a portable oil or gas heater, always turn it off when you retire at night.

5—Your fireplace should be protected with a metal fire screen, placed flush against the fireplace when it is in use. Burning logs frequently and unexpectedly throw hot embers that burn rugs or cause greater damage.

Discover Cricket Is Live Thermometer

PHOENIX, Ari. (AP)—A committee which has just completed a year's study says you can tell the temperature by counting the number of times a cricket chirps in 15 seconds and adding 37.

This and other tidbits are contained in a science guide prepared by the Committee for Elementary School Teachers in Arizona. The purpose is to pep up the study of science.

LEAGUE DRAWS UP SCHEDULE

READING, Pa. (AP)—Directors of the Class A Eastern baseball League, assured of at least six teams for the 1963 season, meet here Saturday to draw up a schedule.

The sixth team whose return is assured is York, Pa., which has signed an agreement with the Washington Senators. York was recently dropped by the Boston Red Sox.

League president Rankin Johnson, announcing the agreement Wednesday, said only Williamsport, 1962 pennant winner, will be lost for the coming season.

Johnson said the league offices would remain in Williamsport.

There will be 140 games in the 1963 season, which will open April 19 and close Sept. 5, Johnson said. The all star game will be played July 15 in Charleston, W. Va.

GOTHAM BOWL STILL IN DOUBT OVER FINANCES

NEW YORK (AP) — The off-again, on-again Gotham Bowl football game is — at least at last count — on again. Maybe.

There was considerable doubt about the status of the game most of the day and into the night Wednesday. The television situation still is up in the air.

Miami, which once or twice threatened to pull out of the troubled affair scheduled for Yankee Stadium Saturday, now says it's coming. The Hurricanes' opponent, Nebraska, is taking a wait and see attitude, meanwhile expecting to fly here Friday.

"Maybe we ought to change the name to 'The Suspense Bowl,'" Gotham Bowl executive director Bob Curran said Wednesday after a series of hastily called conferences that lasted far into the night.

WANT ASSURANCE

The whole confused affair culminated in the announcement by Miami University president Dr. Henry King Stanford the university had been assured by legal counsel for New York Mayor Robert Wagner that funds covering team expenses would be placed in escrow today.

Nebraska chancellor Clifford M. Hardin, however, said he had received no word from the bowl committee about Nebraska's requested $35,000 for expenses.

Hardin said he assumed that if the bowl committee is putting the Miami funds in escrow "they will do the same for us. But we are just going to wait and see if the deposit is made."

Curran, meanwhile, continued his assertion that the game is on and will be televised.

"It's the same situation we had last year," he said. "You can look for television. We'll have it. I just can't say any more about it right now."

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

DECK THE HALLS. With a little ingenuity, it is possible to fashion extra warm and witty Christmas decorations. And they are all the more prized by your family and guests for the bit of yourself that's in them. As a springboard for your own ideas, these suggestions:

For a welcoming note in the entrance hall, spray branches of balsam with gilt; arrange in a milk-white vase and trim with white bells, lightly-flecked in gold sparkles.

To adorn the loving room coffee table, encircle the base of two squat green candles in small, lacy wreaths of silver-dusted lemon leaves. The wreaths are easily made by wiring fronds of the leaves together and dipping in metallic dust.

Flanked with candles and festooned with holly, a pyramid of shimmering tree balls makes a gala centerpiece for the dining room table. The arrangement is built on a round tray or compote of velvet or traditional tree-trim balls.

And that brings us to the kitchen, often neglected and yet so worthy of a holiday touch. The job can even be done at no cost. Simply use left over gift wrap and cut into circles; suspend the circles from ribbons and scatter on cabinet doors with double-faced tape.

As a final touch, bedeck your plants. Wrap the pots in gleaming foil and intersperse miniature ornaments among the leaves. If the trimmed plants can be displayed together—on a wide sill, for instance—the effect is especially festive.

BEAUTY OF HOUSEWORK

ATTENTION HOMEMAKERS! If housework saps your energies, looks and nerves, send for booklet, BEAUTY OF HOUSEWORK. It explains how to keep home and self sparkling with time to spare. Also included are an effort-saving work plan, shortcuts in housekeeping and advice on how to give yourself a beauty treatment while engaged in your duties. For your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing 20 cents in coin and a LARGE, STAMPED, SELF-ADDRESSED ENVELOPE.

Pittsburgh Rens Lose To Steers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pittsburgh's pooped and punchless Rens can't shake the losing habit on the wearying American Basketball League trail.

Playing their seventh game on the road in as many nights and with scoring ace Connie Hawkins still out with an an eye injury, the Rens were overwhelmed by the Kansas City Steers 132-87 Wednesday night.

In the only other ABL action, Long Beach's first-place Chief held their one-half game edge on Kansas City with a 99-89 victory over the Philadelphia Tapers.

AAU AND USTFF TO ARBITRATE

NEW YORK (AP) — Soundly spanked by President Kennedy for "continued bickering" that threatened U.S. participation in the Olympics, both the Amateur Athletic Union and the new college-dominated U.S. Track and Field Federation agreed today to submit their differences to an arbitration panel.

The President called for such arbitration at his news conference Wednesday "on behalf of the country and on behalf of sports." Kennedy had warned that if the organizations refused, "we will not have an Olympic team in 1964."

"We will submit to the panel suggested by the President," said Col. Don Hull, executive director of the AAU.

"I think the President is absolutely right," said Chick Werner, longtime Pennsylvania State track coach who heads the new federation.

"The federation has stood willing to work out a solution with the AAU and I am sure federation officials continue to hold that position," said Walter Byers, executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, which spawned the federation.

The dispute between the two organizations over the control of amateur sports in the country has raged for 2½ years.

NELLIE FOX IS BEST FIELDING SECOND BAGGER

BOSTON (AP) — Although Nellie Fox is supposed to have slowed down a step or two, the official 1962 American League averages serve as testimony that the veteran Chicago White Sox second baseman can still do more than an adequate job in the field.

The fielding statistics released Wednesday showed that Fox made only eight errors in 812 chances for a .990 average and topped the second basemen for the fifth time. He also led in 1952, 1954, 1956 and 1959.

Three other White Sox players took defensive honors. They were first baseman Joe Cunningham, who fielded .9942 to edge Kansas City's Norm Siebern at .9935, shortstop Luis Aparicio .973 and pitcher Ray Herbert, who handled 71 chances flawlessly. It was the fourth straight time Aparicio had paced the shortstops.

Baltimore's Brooks Robinson headed the third basemen for the third consecutive year. He fielded .973. Jimmy Piersall of Washington topped the outfielders with .997 and Elston Howard of the Yankees had the highest average among the catchers, .995.

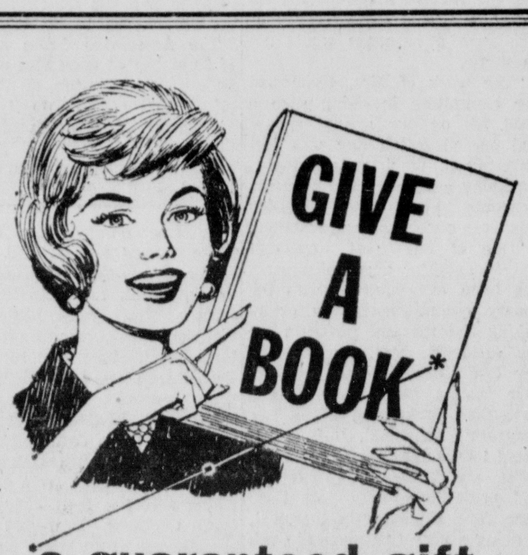

The White Sox were first in club fielding with a .982 average. They were followed by Minnesota and Baltimore, .950 each and New York, Boston and Kansas City, .979 apiece.

The Twins led in double plays with 173.

WILDCATS EYE TERRY BAKER IN LIBERTY BOWL

By GEORGE ESPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "I think the key is to keep Baker from throwing—if we can put pressure on him and also keep him from running."

Coach Alex Bell emphasized today what his Villanova Wildcats must do to defeat Oregon State in Saturday's fourth annual Liberty Bowl classic in Philadelphia Stadium.

And how did Bell propose to stop All-America quarterback Terry Baker, who is a dangerous runner as well as passer, and his favorite target, end Vern Burke?

"We don't reveal what we're going to do," said Bell, then he revealed some of the strategy in broad terms.

"SHOOT THE GAP"

"We have to put two men on Burke, one short and one deep. We've got to keep Baker from running outside on the rollout. We'll do a little shooting-the-gap."

Baker is a left-handed passer like Villanova quarterback Richie Richman. The two have plenty in common—they both play baseball and basketball and are honor students. The one thing they don't have in common is that Baker is known nationally and has received a whole array of awards including the Heisman Trophy and the Maxwell Memorial Award.

In playing against Baker, Richman feels this will be one of the greatest opportunities he's ever had—a terrific challenge, the best thing that ever happened to him.

"KIDS ARE HIGH"

"Our kids are high for the game," said Bell. "If we play up to our potential I think we can win. We have to play our best game."

How Burke, who caught 69 passes for 1,007 yards and 10 touchdowns this season, will react to the Villanova double teaming and the cold weather remains to be seen.

Weather observers figure the temperatures to be between 30 and 40 degrees.

Bell said it's possible the weather might give Villanova an advantage.

The game, with the kickoff scheduled for 1:10 p.m., will be nationally televised (NBC) with the Philadelphia area blacked out.

Bud Dudley, promoter of the game, said advance sales so far are in the 25,000 area.

Meanwhile, Oregon state prepared to fly into Philadelphia tonight. The Beavers will hold their final workout in the stadium tomorrow.

TERRY BAKER OUTSTANDING BACK OF YEAR

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Versatile Terry Baker, Oregon State's do-everything quarterback, was named the outstanding college football back in the nation today in an Associated Press poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Baker, who is being buried in an avalanche of honors in post-season activity, was a narrow choice over Jerry Stovall of Louisiana State. Miami's George Mira and Wisconsin's Ron VanderKelen followed in that order.

Baker previously had been named to the All-America team and had won the Heisman and Maxwell trophies. He was the No. 1 draft choice of the professional National Football League.

CLOSE VOTING

"You name it, and he can do it," one voter commented in casting his ballot for the slender, 195-pound Baker who finished with a career total of 4,980 yards gained, second highest in collegiate history.

Baker, however, edged Stovall by only two votes in the balloting by 132 sportswriters from coast to coast. Stovall, a powerful, explosive runner, was the only non-quarterback in the top five.

Baker, who passes left-handed, kicks with his right foot and pitches baseball right-handed, was the first draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams, who had the No. 1 pick in the NFL.

Baker gained 2,276 yards rushing and passing and threw 13 touchdown passes in leading Oregon State to an 8-2 record and a spot against Villanova this weekend.

WRITERS GIVE SURGEON AND BOXER AWARD

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Marvin (Mal) Stevens, a noted orthopedic surgeon and a former football star and coach, and middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria were named today to receive the Boxing Writers Association's annual awards.

Stevens, chairman of the Medical Advisory Board of the New York Athletic Commission for 11 years and onetime head coach at Yale and New York University, was voted the James J. Walker Memorial Award "for long and meritorious service to boxing."

Tiger, the late blooming boxing king, was selected for the Edward J. Neal Memorial Plaque as the BWA's "Fighter of the Year."

Tiger, an average fighter until he came under the wing of manager Jersey Jones, made a meteoric rise in the last two years. He captured the British Empire middleweight crown and swept to the World Boxing Association title with a string of eight straight victories, including a decisive decision over WBA champion Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, last Oct. 23.

The Neil Trophy is named in honor of the former Associated Press sports writer who was killed while reporting the Spanish Civil War in 1937.

The Walker award is named for the late Mayor of New York who wrote the boxing laws of the state and was a firm friend of boxing.

Shenandoah Will Hold Winter Meet

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — Winter racing in Charles Town will change locale for the first time in 30 years next January 11, when Shenandoah Downs opens a 20-day meeting. On that day the runners will move "across the road" from the old Charles Town day track, which has run winter programs since the early 1930s, to Shenandoah, a $4 million plant beginning its fourth year of operation.

Robert G. Leavitt, Shenandoah Downs general manager, announced today that his plant has been licensed by the West Virginia Racing Commission to run from January 11 through February 2.

The meeting will mark a major change for Shenandoah Downs which will switch from its usual night programs to afternoon racing for the 20 days. Daytime racing is not entirely new to Shenandoah Downs, though. The track has conducted afternoon programs as part of its traditional holiday doubleheaders.

Bermudian Springs Basketball Squad

Above is the Bermudian Springs varsity basketball squad which will attempt to break into the win column for the first time Friday evening when it clashes with unbeaten Delone (2-0) at McSherrystown. The Eagles, rebuilding this season, do not have a single letterman on their squad and have lost their two starts to date.

Susquenita Here Friday To Meet GHS, Fairfield, Delone, Canners At Home

Gettysburg High School, which has taken a liking to its new competition as a member of the Blue Mountain Basketball League, will try for its third straight victory here Friday evening when it entertains Susquenita.

The Warriors have whipped Newport and Boiling Springs to double its entire output of triumphs last season when a 1-16 record was made.

Susquenita is 0-2 in league competition following losses to Shippensburg 65-33 and Big Spring 61-45, both of which are regarded among the stronger Blue Mountain teams.

The Warrior reserves will also go after win number three in the preliminary which starts at 6:45.

Biglerville High, beaten its last two times out by East Pennsboro and Camp Hill in the league, and 1-2 overall, has high hopes for its initial league triumph when it tangles with Boiling Springs (0-2) on the Canners' floor.

OTHER LEAGUE ACTION

The other Blue Mountain games Friday night are: Big Spring at East Pennsboro, both 2-0; Shippensburg (1-1) at Newport (0-2), and Camp Hill (1-1) at Northern (2-0).

Unbeaten Delone Catholic, impressive following one-sided victories over Hanover and Chambersburg, should encounter little trouble in gaining its third victory at McSherrystown Friday night when it entertains inexperienced Bermudian Springs (0-2).

Fairfield High (1-1) takes on St. Joseph's of Emmitsburg on the former's floor in another non-league engagement.

Tonight New Oxford, unbeaten as the result of triumphs over South Western and Dover, will attempt to keep its record clean when it plays at Dallastown.

EDDIE MACHEN DETAINED IN MENTAL HOME

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—Eddie Machen, top-ranked heavyweight contender, was detained in a mental hospital Wednesday after a highway patrolman said he found him apparently contemplating suicide.

The patrolman said Machen told him he planned to kill himself because he was broke, couldn't get any more fights and "everything was all wrong."

The 30-year-old boxer was admitted to Napa State Hospital for observation.

Patrol Traffic Officer Bill McCluskey said he found Machen parked off U.S. Highway 40 near Vallejo, Calif., "a loaded gun next to him on the seat. He was writing a farewell letter."

NO INJURIES

A physician at the hospital said Wednesday night Machen was in "satisfactory condition and has no apparent injuries."

Dr. B. J. Quelan of the hospital staff would not discuss Machen's confinement but said he would be examined today.

Machen, a Negro, is managed by Sid Flaherty of Portland. Ranked No. 1 by the World Boxing Association and No. 2 behind former champion Floyd Patterson by Ring Magazine, Machen has won 42 fights, lost 4, had 2 draws and has scored 24 knockouts.

He has been mentioned as a possible opponent for heavyweight champion Sonny Liston and an imminent opponent for fast rising Cassius Clay.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

SHERMAN GETS COACH OF YEAR SECOND TIME

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Allie Sherman, winner of a second term as Coach of the Year in the National Football League, rates his 1962 New York Giants a better club than last year's Eastern Conference champs.

Sherman outpointed four contenders in the voting of an Associated Press committee of sports writers and broadcasters from the 14 league cities today.

The committee gave Sherman 13 votes to 10 for Bill McPeak of Washington, seven each for Vince Lombardi of Green Bay and Tom Landry of Dallas and four for George Wilson of Detroit.

"I am grateful for this honor," said Sherman in his office at Yankee Stadium, where he is preparing the Giants for Sunday's game with Dallas. "I didn't know anybody ever repeated. I want to thank all the players and my staff."

CREDITS TITTLE

Sherman said one big reason for the club's improvement was the fact that Y.A. Tittle and the players had grown to know one another better. He pointed out that Tittle, acquired last year from San Francisco, had been injured in the 1961 training season and missed the opening game.

"Tittle had to learn the whole club last year," he said. "Now he knows what they ca.. do and we know what to expect from him.

"Another thing that has helped us is that we were able to firm up our backfield with Phil King and Alex Webster. I don't think we started the same two running backs in any game all last season."

Sherman didn't say it but he knew the club had to be better than last year if it expected to handle Green Bay in their probable meeting Dec. 30 for the title. Don't think he has forgotten that 37-0 licking last year.

HORNETS BOLT LOSING STREAK IN 4-2 VICTORY

It took a while in both cases but Pittsburgh finally ended its winless streak and Cleveland player-coach Fred Glover got the 1,000th assist of his American Hockey League career in the same game.

The Hornets, last in the AHL's Western Division, grabbed their opportunity against the next-to-last-place Cleveland club and defeated the Barons 4-2 Wednesday night for their first victiry in 10 games. Glover registered assist No. 1,000 on Dick Van Impe's goal.

In the only other game scheduled, goalie Ed Chadwick turned aside 23 shots and turned in his second shutout as Hershey knocked off the Eastern Division leading Quebec Aces 3-0.

Lowell McDonald, Eddie Joyal, Howie Menard and Earl Balfour got the job done for Pittsburgh, Balfour clinching it with a goal into an empty net after the Barons had pulled their goalie to throw in an extra forward. Van Impe and John Mikol tallied for Cleveland.

Les Duff put Hershey ahead 1-0 at 5:10 of the opening period, and 71 seconds later Harry Yanoski made it 2-0. Willie Marshall scored the Bears final goal with less than 2 minutes left in the game.

No games are scheduled tonight.

Black Hawks Lead National League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Chicago Black Hawks were riding a four-point bulge atop the National Hockey League standings today, and they have the New York Rangers to thank for much of it.

The Rangers, who haven't beaten the Black Hawks all season, dropped their sixth straight to the Chicago club Wednesday night, 4-3, after taking a one-goal lead into the final period.

It was the only NHL game on the schedule.

JIM TAYLOR IS NAMED PLAYER OF YEAR IN NFL

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor, Green Bay's crashing fullback who is noted for his great second effort, was voted Player of the Year in the National Football League today by an Associated Press committee of sports writers and broadcasters from the 14 league cities.

Taylor, a 27-year-old former Louisiana State ace in his fifth year of pro ball, grabbed the award won last year by Paul Hornung, the Packers' glamorous triple threat halfback who has been crippled by a knee injury this season.

With one more game to play, Taylor already has tied the NFL record by scoring 18 touchdowns, all on the ground, and leads the league in scoring with 108 points.

TO SUCCEED BROWN

Packer fans have been insisting that Taylor deserved to be named the All-Star fullback over Cleveland's Jimmy Brown. They finally got their wish this season. Brown's fabulous five-year reign as rushing champion is sure to end and Taylor appears sure to succeed him. Taylor has gained 1,318 yards in 249 carries, 206 yards more than John Henry Johnson of Pittsburgh, his closest competitor. Brown is fourth with 861 yards.

Y. A. Tittle, the old "bald eagle" who has thrown 27 touchdown passes for the New York Giants, finished a strong second to Taylor in the voting. Taylor drew 19 ballots, Tittle had 13 and Bobby Mitchell, Washington flanker back had four.

Taylor is a key to Coach Vince Lombardi's system of ball control that has seen the Packers score 38 of their 50 touchdowns on the ground and only 12 through the air.

"Taylor may not be as big as some fullbacks but he has balance and determination," said Lombardi earlier. "He is hard to knock off his feet and he fights for every yard."

Navy Edges Bullets In 65-63 Thriller; Frosh Top Plebes In Overtime

A pair of free throws in the last four seconds of the ball game was all that kept the U.S. Naval Academy from falling into the hands of a determined Gettysburg College basketball team Wednesday afternoon as the Middies pulled a 65-63 decision out of the fire in Annapolis.

Leading 36-32 going into the second half, the Bullets came out after intermission and seemed paralyzed for the first 3:30 minutes as they were unable to connect for a point. Navy went ahead during that time by scoring 11 points on three goals by John Mahoney and charity tosses by Ron Terwilliger and Dave Kanning. At the 16:30 mark, George Strouse broke the ice with a two-hand lay-up, followed by Don Szegda's free throw and a three-point play by Roger Gaeckler. Gettysburg led 42-41 at 15:55 and from that point on the count seesawed 11 times until Navy took a 63-62 lead with 55 seconds remaining in the game.

Doug Kepner hit on one of two fouls to make it 63-63 but with four seconds to go Ben Thomas went in for a desperation lay-up and was fouled in the process. Thomas made good on both charity throws to hang up the win for the Middies.

LEAD AT HALF

From the very first tap-off the contest turned into a nip-and-tuck battle. The lead exchanged hands 12 times during the first 20 minutes and with 2:44 remaining in the half, Navy landed its last point to make it 32-28. Bob Hulton's cagers headed for the intermission with Roger Ecker's four for four from the foul line and Ted Koerner's pair of corner jumps.

Gettysburg went 12 for 12 from the foul line in the first half and finished the game with 21 for 24. The Bullets were 21 for 50 from the field. Navy hit on 24 of 66 field goals and 17 of 26 fouls. John Mahoney was the big man in the Middies' order with 23 tallies. Ted Koerner, hitting on eight of 15 field shots, topped the Bullets with 19 points. Roger Gaeckler netted nine rebounds while Bob Davenport took game honors with 11.

Coach John Carpenter's Gettysburg yearlings made it three in a row by tripping the Navy Plebes 84-78 in overtime. The victory marked the first for a Bullet team over an Academy squad in many years.

The Little Bullets, trailing through most of the game, knotted the count in the final seconds on Jim Ruck's lay-up. Dave Yates hit on the key shots in the overtime period to pace the yearlings to the win. Yates scored six of the 17 extra counters to register 20 for the game. Bob Morris was once again high with 21. Dave Law topped the Plebes with 19 tallies. Law also pulled down 19 rebounds to lead in that department while Chris Sirms captured nine for the Frosh.

FACE BISONS SATURDAY

Gettysburg, 2-2 on the season, will close out the pre-Christmas schedule in Lewisburg against a tough Bucknell team Saturday night. Bucknell is playing its first season under new head coach Gene Evans, former Carlisle High coach. The Gettysburg Freshman, 3-0 on the year, will meet the tall Bison Frosh squad in the preliminary.

MOUNTAINEER SIGNS 2 PRO GRID PACTS

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP)—Halfback Tom Woodeshick of West Virginia, a double pro signer, said today he signed first with the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League but claimed it occurred a full week before the AFL draft and the official end of the college football season.

The halfback said he had been told the contract was null and void and he wanted to play with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National League, who signed him Dec. 10 and announced the contract Wednesday. This drew a counter-announcement from the Bills that he already was under contract to them.

If Woodeshick's contention is true, the contract with Buffalo violated professional football's agreement with the National Collegiate Athletic Association that no player will be signed prior to the end of the college season.

SIGNED NOV. 24

"I signed with Buffalo on Nov. 24 about 6 p.m. at the Hotel Syracuse after our game against Syracuse," Woodeshick said. "I was signed by two assistant coaches for the Bills, Jerry Smith and Joel Collier. I didn't know it would make any difference to be signed ahead of the draft but they told me they would date the contract after the draft."

The AFL draft was held Dec. 1 in Dallas, the NFL draft Dec. 3 in Chicago. Woodeshick was Buffalo's fifth draft choice and Philadelphia's No. 8 pick.

Joe Foss, commissioner of the AFL, was unavailable for comment. Last year, Foss was the center of a storm in pro football when he conceded that, without his knowledge, AFL owners had conducted a secret draft during the 1961 season. The commissioner declared the draft and any possible contractural agreements resulting from it null and void.

Rep. Clarence Cannon Is Tough And Cantankerous, But Expert Parliamentarian

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — They may come tougher than Clarence Cannon, but it's hard to find them.

He's the cantankerous Democrat who lambasted his own House leadership in the closing hours of the last session so bitterly that the Republican leader took the floor to say some kind words about Speaker John McCormack.

The 83-year-old Missouri Congressman, who heads the House Appropriations Committee, is a man of many facets. Depending on his mood and the occasion, he can be as tenacious as a bulldog, as stubborn as a Missouri mule, or as gentle as the doting grandpa that he is.

GRIT FOR HEFT

A small man physically — he weighs around 140 pounds—Cannon makes up in grit for what he lacks in heft. His physical encounters during a span of almost 40 years in the House include minor fisticuffs with such colleagues as former Rep. John Phillips of California and Rep. John Taber of New York, Republicans, and former Sen. Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee, a Democrat.

These sparring matches occurred over differences on government money bills, all of which clear through Cannon's hands.

During his more than 30 years on the Appropriations Committee, Cannon has helped shell out billions of dollars of the taxpayers' money, and has cut billions from recommended appropriations. He warns continuously of the dangers of overspending and the evils of deficit financing.

MENTALLY AGILE

As tight as he is with the public's money, Cannon is somewhat loose with his own, especially with silver dollars. He has shelled out hundreds of them to children whom he encounters in the course of his official meanderings.

With each silver dollar goes the admonition that if the recipient holds on to it "you will never go broke."

Cannon is mentally as well as physically agile—and he can hold a grudge or forget it.

At the end of the recent session of Congress he unleashed a tirade against the Democratic House leadership in general and Speaker McCormack in particular. He described the leadership as the most "biased and inept" he had seen during his long years of service.

CLOSE TO RAYBURN

Only a few minutes later, he stood and applauded as the House adopted a resolution praising McCormack's "able, impartial and dignified" handling of the speakership.

Cannon was personally close to the late Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, although Rayburn privately conceded that at times he found Cannon extremely difficult to get along with legislatively.

"Stubborn" and "bullheaded" were words Rayburn used on occasion to described Cannon's attitude.

WAS REAL FRIEND

But when the chips were down during Democratic national conventions, Rayburn at times found in Cannon a real friend in need. As chairman of many conventions, Rayburn always insisted that Cannon serve as parliamentarian. Conventions can get out of hand without a presiding officer and a shrewd parliamentarian with a working knowledge of precedents and the procedural "ropes."

On more than one occasion Cannon dipped into his bag of parliamentary gimmicks when the going got rough. He could somehow manage to cite a precedent for almost anything Rayburn wanted to do as chairman.

Rayburn once confessed after a turbulent convention session that he didn't know where Cannon found the precedents and doubted if they actually existed.

"If he can't find them, he'll make them," the late speaker commented.

Probably no one is more experienced in legislative precedent than is Cannon. He wrote many of the House rules—and "Cannon's Procedure in the House of Representatives" is a legislative bible.

Cannon started out to be a lawyer but got into local Missouri politics to widen his field of contacts. In 1911, Champ Clark, then speaker of the House, persuaded Cannon to come to Washington as a clerk in the speaker's office.

"I wanted to see the wheels go around" for a few weeks and took the job, Cannon recalls. He never got back to Missouri to stay. In 1917 he was named parliamentarian of the House, a post he held until he was elected as a member in 1922. Only one present member, Rep. Carl Vinson, Georgia Democrat, outranks Cannon in years of service.

WED 56 YEARS

In private life, Cannon is a gentle, home-loving man. His devotion to his wife, the former Ida Dawson Wigginton, to whom he has been married 56 years, is cited as a model of domesticity by colleagues.

The Cannons have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

"She runs the place, but she doesn't fool me," Cannon says of the only granddaughter, "but I doubt if I fool her, either."

Cannon's hobbies are few. He tinkers at the piano and operates a diversified 750-acre farm on the Mississippi River. He is an avid student of history.

He is a Baptist by birth and by choice and has never moved his home from his native town of Elsberry, Mo., which was founded in 1879, the year Cannon was born.

DPI WILL ASK $55 MILLION BUDGET JUMP

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Department of Public Instruction reportedly will recommend a $55 million increase in the state education budget for 1963-64.

Sources indicated Wednesday that better than half the proposed increase is necessary under current laws. It does not account for any voluntary increase in the state's basic aid to public schools, nor for higher teacher salaries.

The recommendation, which would boost the department's budget to more than $560 million, is subject to approval by Gov.-elect William W. Scranton who takes office Jan. 15.

The proposed increases include $26 million for public schools, $13 million for state-aided colleges and universities, $6 million for the 14 state-owned colleges, $5 million for payments on the school building debt, $1.5 million for statewide library services and miscellaneous raises making up the balance.

Bulk of the proposed increase, about $50 million, would have to come out of state tax funds. The remainder would be made up through tuition fees and federal assistance.

The 1962-63 budget was approved by the legislature at $490.7 million in state funds plus $19 million in outside funds for a total of approximately $510 million.

This included $379.1 million for support of the public schools.

The reported $26 million increase in this category in 1963-64 would include $16 million in the basic state subsidy to its public schools ($274 million in the current budget), the $5 million for school building debt (now $35 million), $10 million for special education programs (for the mentally, physically handicapped, exceptional students, now $16.6 million) $400,000 in the bonus paid school districts for voluntary reorganization (now $17.3 million).

In the field of higher education, the state appropriation for Penn State would be raised to $24 million (now $20 million), and the major state-aided institutions—the Universities of Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh and Temple University—would have their allocations increased by about $1 million each. It now runs $5.7 million for Penn and Temple and $4.1 million for Pitt.

More than $1 million has been recommended for the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy, which received only $136,000 this year. The money proposed for 1963-64 would put it on an approximately equal basis with the medical schools at Pitt, Penn and Temple.

LIST 12 GOALS FOR INCOMING LEGISLATURE

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—State Sen. Albert R. Pechan, the Republican majority whip, has outlined 12 main legislative goals which he says the incoming state administration will probably strive for.

Pechan, addressing a luncheon of the Butler Shrine Club here Wednesday, stressed these objectives:

1. Civil Service protection for more state employes, especially those in the professions.

2. Improvement of the state's industrial climate, through the creation of a labor-management council.

SCHOOL MORATORIUM

3. Creation of a job-retraining council.

4. Broader authority for the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority.

5. Reapportionment to reduce the size of large senatorial districts.

6. A one-year moratorium of the already-adopted school district reorganization law, allowing time for further study.

7. An increase in teachers' salaries and in state payments to school districts.

CONSTITUTION REVISION

8. Establishment of more two-year community colleges.

9. Increased state support for state colleges and scholarship loans.

10. Authorization for a constitutional convention to revise the 1863 State Constitution.

11. A strong strip mining law.

12. Improvements in the state law governing medical care for persons over 65.

Free County Home Supervisor Today

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Joseph Smithmyer of Ebensburg, superintendent of the Cambria County Home, was free today on $1,000 bond following his conviction of extortion.

A jury convicted him Wednesday after deliberating for 2½ hours.

Smithmyer had admitted receiving $100 a month for six or seven months from Barnett Sklar, who was then the operator of the Home Baking Co. of Ebensburg, which supplied county institutions. Smithmyer testified that he didn't know why he was receiving the money and he didn't ask any questions.

Transit Talks Resume Friday

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Union and management negotiators return to the bargaining table Friday in an effort to get on with contract talks that have twice bogged down bringing the city to the brink of a crippling transit strike.

The meeting, third in two weeks was called Wednesday after Transport Workers Union Local 234 withdrew a threat to strike the Philadelphia Transportation Co. at midnight Wednesday.

Local President David Reick said he had received firm assurances from PTC President Robert H. Stier "that the company will finally bargain constructively on the union's contract demands." The current contract expires Jan. 14.

The union is seeking a flat 38 cent an hour wage increase plus a cut in the work week that would bring the total wage package to 75 cents. It also seeks additional fringe benefits including improved hospital and sick leave.

UNION'S AGENT HELD ON BAIL

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Howard S. Kline, business agent of Teamsters Local 773, has been ordered held under $3,500 bail for the federal grand jury charged with accepting money from an employer to prevent picketing.

The 62-year-old Kline of Orefield R. 1, waived a preliminary hearing Tuesday night before U.S. Commissioner James D. Christie who set the bail.

Kline was arrested Tuesday by FBI agents who said he was carrying about $700 of an alleged $1,000 payoff he received from Valerie Fashions, Inc., in nearby Wind Gap.

The money, the FBI said, was paid in return for Kline's guarantee the firm would not be picketed in a dispute over wage scales earlier this month.

Employes of the firm belong to the International Lddies Garment Workers Union. Teamsters picketed the plant, until a court order restrained them, in a dispute over what they said was the firm's failure to pay the Teamster wage scale.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

POPE SPEAKS OF ILLNESS

VATICAN CITY (AP) —Pope John XXIII spoke calmly Wednesday of his illness and said he might still be Pope a year from now — "or there will be another."

Still a bit pale, the 81-year-old Roman Catholic ruler seemed cheerful at his first general audience since becoming seriously ill Nov. 27.

His mood spread to the 1,000 persons admitte dto the audience in the Clementine Hall of the Vatican. They laughed as he spoke of his health and age. He smiled.

His audience was one more step toward a full resumption of his normal activities.

It was not his first appearance in public since a stomach disorder and anemia forced him to curtail his activities. He attended the last two sessions of the first phase of the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council. He also participated in canonization ceremonies on Sunday.

At the audience, he referred again to his hope that the council would end by Christmas 1963—a hope he first expressed Saturday when he recessed the council.

SKYBOLT FATE AWAITS TALKS AT TOP LEVEL

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fate of the Skybolt missile program, subject of the hottest U.S.-British argument in years, hangs precariously on next week's meeting between President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan—and this country's military budget.

Tentative American plans to give up on the expensive missile—around which Britain has shaped its nuclear strategy—has brought a sharp reaction from Britain and put a strain on the alliance.

When asked about the Skybolt dispute at his news conference Wednesday, Kennedy spokes cautiously.

MEET DEC. 19

1. He was sure it would be discussed when he meets with Macmillan in the Bahamas Dec. 19-20. The United States is now reviewing its budget for the new fiscal year. No final decision will be made until these matters have been completed.

2. The United States has put a half-billion dollars into the program so far. To complete it and buy the missiles might require $2.5 billion more. Five tests of the 1,100-mile range ballistic missile for launching from bombers have not been successful.

"So—there really is the question of how much it is worth to the British and ourselves to put in that kind of money when we have competing claims for our available funds," the President said.

"MOST SOPHISTICATED"

Kennedy characterized the Skybolt as "the most sophisticated weapon imaginable. To fire a missile from a plane moving at high speed to hit a target 1,000 miles away requires the most advanced engineering and, of course, it has been really, in a sense, the kind of engineering that's been beyond us."

British experts do't believe the Skybolt is a flop. They feel the initial troubles can be overcome.

Kennedy noted that Britain has a "very important equity in the matter."

MAY RECONSIDER

There is, of course, the possibility that Kennedy and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara may reconsider what seems to be the present intention to drop the program.

McNamara's talk with British Defense Minister Peter Thorneycroft in London reportedly got nowhere.

Britain, whose whole strategic nuclear strategy hinged on using the U.S. Skybolt on its own Vulcan bombers, is understood to have rejected firmly any suggestion that it might use the Hound Dog missile instead.

BRITISH CHASE REBEL UNITS IN NORTH BORNEO

LABUAN, North Borneo (AP)—British troops pushed out from regained towns in Brunei and northwest Sarawak today chasing rebel bands seeking refuge in dense jungles and swamps.

Local British commanders were concerned that the rebels, whose strength still is unknown, would attempt to organize a long guerrilla war from swamplaind hideouts.

Several hundred tribesmen from the interior of Sarawak, responding to an ancient hostility to the rebel coastal dwellers, were reported prowling the Brunei-Sarawak border areas in an effort to cut off rebel bands.

However, Lt. Gen. Sir Nigel Poett, commander of British Far East land forces, declared after a visit to operations areas that the possibility of rebel guerrilla resistance already was remote after only six days of revolt.

"We have broken the back of the rebellion," he said.

He pointed out that the rebels, who wanted to set up an independent state composed of the Brunei sultanate and the two neighboring crown colonies of Sarawak and North Borneo, were armed only with shotguns and a few rifles.

Bradford Farmer Gets State Honor

HARRISBURG (AP) — Charles W. Lundy, 18, of Wysox, R. 2, Bradford County, will be honored as the star dairy farmer at the 1963 State Farm show.

Lundy, a 1962 graduate of the Towanda Area Joint High School, was selected for the honor Wednesday by the Future Farmers of America for planning the most outstanding dairy farming project of the year.

The award carries a $100 prize from the national FFA Foundation Inc.

PAPER STRIKE NEGOTIATIONS DEADLOCKED

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiations in this city's newspaper strike have been called off until next week by federal mediators in the face of a solid deadlock that caused one negotiator to comment: "We are in a state of siege."

The action late Wednesday meant that eight million persons would have to do without their nine major dailies for at least five more days. Also doing without are the hundreds of businesses that depend on the papers to advertise their wares during the Christmas shopping season.

The strike of printers represented by Local 6 of the International Typographical Union is already in its sixth day. Nearly 20,000 employes of the papers have been idled.

WILL AWAIT CALL

Director William E. Simkin of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said after the talks were recessed that he would return to Washington and would remain there subject to call.

Federal mediators said the printers and the Publishers Association of New York were simply too far apart for productive sessions.

Both publishers' Chairman Amory H. Bradford and the local union president, Bertram A. Powers, seemed to agree.

Bradford said an offer of an $8-a-week increase plus various fringe benefits made by the publishers would cost $14 million over the two-year term of a new contract if, as expected, the settlement reached with the printers is applied to six other craft unions—the deliverers, paper handlers, stereotypers, pressmen, photoengravers and mailers.

The union has been seeking an $18.45 weekly increase to bring the base rate of printers to $159.45, plus various fringe benefits.

PUT PENALTIES ON TRADE WITH CUBAN PORTS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has decided to impose penalties on non-Communist shipping engaged in trade with Cuba, chiefly by denying American cargoes to the vessels.

New regulations are expected to be put into effect in about two weeks.

The President's move, disclosed Wednesday at a news conference, involves reviving plans that were shelved when the Cuban crisis broke in October.

KEEP SQUEEZE ON

Thus, the United States is reverting to its precrisis policy of putting an increasingly tight economic squeeze on the Castro regime in Cuba and, at the same time, making the cost of Soviet support for that regime as high as possible.

Kennedy also made two other major points about the Cuban situation:

1. He hopes that negotiations going on between U.S. and Soviet representatives in New York "will come to some conclusion in the not too distant future." Meanwhile the United States intends to maintain its vigilance against the reintroduction of Soviet offensive weapons into the island. This was the substance of the President's reaction to Soviet Premier Khrushchev's speech in Moscow Wednesday claiming Soviet policy had been victorious in Cuba.

WASN'T VERTIFICATION

2. It is the "best judgment" of the U.S. government that Soviet nuclear missiles and jet bombers "have been removed from Cuba" but "these things are never 100 per cent" certain. The United States is still insisting on direct verification of the removal of the weapons and on safeguards against their re-introduction.

Khrushchev suggested in his Moscow speech that the conditions exist for clearing up the differences between the United States and the Soviet Union on Cuba. He emphasized that he expects the President to live up to his offer of a no-invasion pledge.

The President said he had not analyzed and did not wish to comment specifically on Khrushchev's statements.

BOB COUSY IN FINAL SEASON

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bob Cousy is, according to his own announcement, in his last year in the National Basketball Association. Perhaps he's a half-step slower than before. Maybe some of the drive is lacking.

But don't try to convince the St. Louis Hawks.

The Cooz turned in a typically brilliant performance Wednesday night, leading Boston past St. Louis 111-98 and dropping the Hawks 2½ games back of Western leader Los Angeles. The Lakers edged Syracuse 126-120.

Chicago defeated Cincinnati 105-102 in the first half of the doubleheader at Boston and Detroit broke New York's four-game winning string 115-106.

Cousy was the difference for the Celtics. He tossed in 13 points and added five assists in the first period as Boston forged a 28-21 lead that stood up the rest of the way. Cousy finished with 18 points and 13 assists.

Littlestown School Board Going To State With Its One-District County Plan

The board of directors of the Littlestown Joint School System re-elected Wilbur E. Mackley as president of the joint board at the December meeting Tuesday evening at the high school, Fred Hartlaub was elected vice president.

The board also went on record as opposing Act 561 in its present state and by majority vote approved a resolution to be sent to the state Council of Education expressing their reasons why the Littlestown Jointure recommends a one-district county plan, should the present act become effective.

The Littlestown joint board was one of the school units in the county which recommended to the Adams County Board of School Directors that a one-district county plan be adopted. The county board adopted a two-district plan but reserved the right to review it in the light of 1963 school legislation.

SCHOOL PAPER OUT

The treasurer reported receipts for the month toaling $40,074.45 and expenditures of $35,621.76. Bills and salaries were ordered paid. The second Tuesday of each month was retained as the meeting night.

The administrative and accumulative reports were presented by Principal Paul E. King and revealed that on December 3 visitations were made in grades and high schools by four teachers of Southwestern School District. All homerooms are being decorated for the Christmas season. A number of seniors took college board exams in York December 1. All girls of the school were counseled by the dean of girls concerning dress, conduct and attitudes in and about school. The first issue of The Littonian Echo, school publication, has been released with the format changed from previous years.

SCHOOL HEALTH REPORT

School Nurse Brenda B. Walker reported 22 home calls and 191 first aid treatments in school, seven of which required further treatment at the doctor's office and four required x-rays at the hospital. There were five conferences with parents at school. Dr. Leonard L. Potter examined 31 boys who are participating in junior high basketball. Dental examinations as mandated by the School Health Act were completed in Grades 1, 3 and 7 by Dr. Richard M. Phreaner. Mrs. Walker attended a conference at the Day Care Center with parents and supervisors regarding further placement of a visually handicapped child. The general health of the pupils was reported as good.

In the music department it was noted that Thomas Shildt and Dwight Wintrode, high school Seniors, attended a music clinic at Bucknell University. Five members of the senior high school band attended the Southern District band tryouts held in Hershey on Saturday, accompanied by both Mr. Harner and Mr. McGriff, who served as members of the tryout committee.

The Adams County Music Festival will be held at the Littlestown High School on February 13. Dr. Thurmond and Pierre Getz will be guest conductors for chorus and band. Both are from Lebanon Valley College.

GIVE GRID SCHEDULE

Special class activities for girls in physical education include social and square dancing, posture and instructions in bowling. The boys' program includes volleyball, tumbling and wrestling. There are intramural contests for both boys and girls. In addition to selecting Frank Basehoar Jr. for the annual A. G. Ealy Memorial award at a recent meeting, the athletic council also empowered the athletic director to try to secure one nonleague football game for the 1963 season and adopted the 1963 football schedule as follows:

September 7, York Suburban, away; 13, South Western, at home; 21, Susquehannock, away; 27, West York, at home; October 4 or 5, Dallastown, away; 11, Central York, home; 18, Spring Grove, away; 25, Kennard-Dale, home; November 1, Hanover, away.

Eighteen players were approved for football letters. It was suggested that a new scoreboard be obtained and the athletic director was instructed to investigate this possibility. It was recommended that complimentary passes be given to all members of the Board of Education for the 1963-64 season, pending board action.

CAFETERIA REPORT

All elementary school pupils participated in the annual school chest drive during the month. Fifth Grade pupils and their teachers toured the Littonian Shoe Company. Report cards for Grades One and Two were distributed on Tuesday. The Third Grade at Rolling Acres was regrouped during the month, after a thorough study, from heterogeneous to homogeneous grouping for the reading program. A letter explaining the new set up was sent home to parents.

In the cafeteria, during 20 days of operation, there were 21,016 meals served, an average of 1,204 daily. It was reported that due to drifting snow conditions, several buses made abbreviated runs on December 7.

The board will meet again on Tuesday, January 8.

President Mackley was in charge of the session which was attended by the following directors: George S. Worley, Bernard Hess, Fred Hartlaub, Charles Rabenstine, Aaron Rohrbaugh, Roy Snyder, William Bensel, James Reichart, Clair Arter, David S. Kammerer, Kenneth K. Kroh, Mrs. Rhoda Gitt, Glenn Bowers, Charles W. Weikert, Dale W. Starry, Richard A. Maitland, Richard Neiderer, Rex Maddox, George W. Strevig, Stanley Wolfe, Supervising Principal King and Secretary Henry E. Waltman. Prayer was offered by the president.

SAYS UNION DISTORTING RAIL FACTS

HARRISBURG (AP) — A Pennsylvania Railroad official has charged that rail unions have "completely distorted the facts" of the PRR's proposed merger with the New York Centrail Railroad.

In addition, James W. Oram said at a news conference Wednesday, the various unions "have failed to refute any of the facts and figures were presented in our testimony before the Interstate Commerce Commission."

Oram is PRR vice president for public and employe relations.

ASKS INVESTIGATION

On another front Wednesday night, Martin L. Mellett, grand vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, called for a congressional investigation of the financial condition of the nation's railroads.

Addressing the union-sponsored Central Pennsylvania Committee to Preserve Railroads, Mellett predicted such an inquiry would "give lie for once and for all to the myth of railroad poverty."

Oram said the union distorted the facts on the number of employes to be affected by the merger and the number of trains to be dropped or re-routed.

11,000 JOBS YEARLY

He claimed that the two railroads together have had to eliminate an average of 11,000 jobs a year in the last decade because of reduced business.

If the merger is approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, Oram said, only 7,800 jobs would be eliminated in the next five years throughout the two systems.

He declared that the merger eventually would add 1,932 jobs in Pennsylvania.

Oram claimed that only 39 trains would be re-routed from Pennsylvania or eliminated.

And, he added, all of these trains carry overhead freight that does not originate or terminate in Pennsylvania.

TEMPLE OWLS BEAT BISONS ON BIFOCALS

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bad eyesight, good insight and a pair of beat-up junior high school bifocals were the main topics of discussion today as Temple's Owls focused their attention on the strange events of victory No. 3.

Things went wrong for Temple at the start against Bucknell Wednesday night when Bob Harrington lost one of his contact lenses early in the first quarter. A search of the Palestra basketball court failed to locate the lost lens.

Harrington was forced to the bench and the Owls trailed. But Harrington was thinking, and quickly dispatched his three brothers to their home. Midway in the second half, the brothers returned with the beat-up glasses Harrington hadn't worn since junior high school.

LASALLE EASY WINNER

The 6-foot-2 junior went back into the game, got his eye on the basket and sank four straight baskets, putting Temple ahead to stay, 48-45, in a 61-53 triumph over the Bisons. In the second half of the Palestra double header, LaSalle clobbered Lehigh, 85-34.

Elsewhere, Bowling Green maintained its average winning spread of 50 points a game while walloping Miami of Ohio, 86-36; Kentucky reacted to a tongue-lashing by coach Adolph Rupp and belted Florida State, 83-54, and Navy edged Gettysburg, 65-63 on 2 foul shots with 2 seconds remaining by Ben Thomas, the Middies' first Negro cager.

ARMY WINS

In other top games, Bob Foley's 20-point performance led Army to a 73-61 victory over Buffalo, San Francisco defeated Oklahoma City, 86-74; Purdue got by Wabash, 73-64; Holy Cross thumped Harvard, 83-64, and Connecticut opened defense of its Yankee crown with an 85-64 decision over Massachusetts.

Reacting to Rupp's verbal broadsides after a narrow 56-52 decision over Temple Saturday, Kentucky's Wildcats hit 61.5 per cent of their shots in the first half and left Florida State way behind, 55-33.

Cites Changes In 1963 Feed Grain Program

Howard R. Porter, chairman of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, today announced that the Secretary of Agriculture had made certain important modifications in the provisions of the 1963 feed grain program that are of vital interest to Pennsylvania farmers.

Price support to participating farmers, which is available partly through loans and purchase agreements and partly through price-support payment has been increased. Under the increases, loans and purchase agreements will reflect a national average price of $1.07 per bushel on corn, $1.71 per cwt. on grain sorghum, and 82 cents per bushel on barley. Previously these prices were $1.02 per bushel for corn, $1.62 per cwt. on grain sorghum, and 79 cents per bushel on barley.

SMALL FEED GRAIN

In addition, as previously announced, price-support payments will be made on the normal production of the 1963 feed grain acreage at the rate of 18 cents per bushel on corn, 29 cents per cwt. (16 cents per bushel) on grain sorghum, and 14 cents per bushel on barley.

Another important change, Porter pointed out, involves farms with small feed grain bases. The payment rate for acreage diverted to conserving uses on these small feed grain base farms will be increased to 50 per cent of the county support rate on the normal production of the diverted acres for the farm on which the entire feed grain base acreage is diverted up to the eligible 25-acre maximum.

These changes are intended to further the objectives of the 1963 feed grain program in achieving a better balance between feed grain supplies and needs, and to continue improvement of farm income.

Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, was introduced at a luncheon in New York and said he was so flattered by the introductory remarks that "I almost wish I were running for office."

Chief S. O. Adebo, Nigerian ambassador to the world body, said in a speech at the luncheon "that I was secretly praying that Stevenson would become the president of the United States." At that, Stevenson stood up, shook hands with the ambassador and thanked him. "Of course," said the chief, "these things are not always done logically."

Francis Cardinal Spellman was host to more than 2,000 persons on the occasion of his 17th annual benefit Christmas party for children of the New York Foundling Hospital. KHYBER PASS, FAMED IN WAR, IS QUIET NOW

By DAVID LANCASHIRE

KHYBER PASS, Pakistan (AP) — The clang of ancient battle seems to echo stilll from the limestone cliffs of this historic invasion route where Alexander the Great's soldiers marched into India and generations of British troops fought the Pathan tribesmen.

But now you can drive comfortably through Khyber Pass in a taxi and buy a porcelain bust of Abraham Lincoln or a bag of fresh popcorn on the way.

Silence hangs over the great mud fort of Jamrud. The squat stone picket forts guarding the hilltops are empty of riflemen.

SMILE AND POSE

Tribesmen, with guns clutched in their hands and chests lipped with bandoliers of cartridges, smile and pose for pictures. The road that twists along 21 miles of Khyber Pass is a tourist route.

Under the colorfully calm exterior, however, tribal passions still boil and the pass is once again a point of tension. American aid which poured through the famous mountain valley until last year is affected.

Cut through great brown shale and limestone walls, Khyber Pass joins West Pakistan and Afghanistan. Over the centuries foreign invaders have used it to conquer India—Greeks, Tartars, Moguls and Persians.

RESTRICTED AREA

Mrs. John F. Kennedy made a one-woman invasion of it this year, and villagers reminisce hungrily about the feast given in her honor.

British soldiers of the Indian army used to lead expedition after expedition through it for wars against Afghanistan and to subdue riflewielding tribesmen who created havoc on the frontier. In nearby Jagdalik Pass the Pathans wiped out a retreating British army of 16,000 men in 1841.

The Khyber is a restricted and loosely administered tribal area still. Visitors need a special entry pass from the Pakistan government. Tribal justice rules and shooting feuds are common.

TRIBAL AFFAIR

Garishly colored buses bulging with passengers, baggage geese and chickens grind up the pass road. Hooded women in baggy trousers trek to their fortified mud villages with bundles of firewood on their heads.

Alongside runs a railway built with many tunnels in 1925. The tribesman ride it free. A few years ago they shot a conductor who insisted on collecting ares.

The political trouble that swirls around the pass today is another tribal affair. Pakistan and Afghanistan broke off diplomatic relations 15 months ago when Afghan diplomats were accused of fomenting strife and subversion among tribesmen in the frontier area.

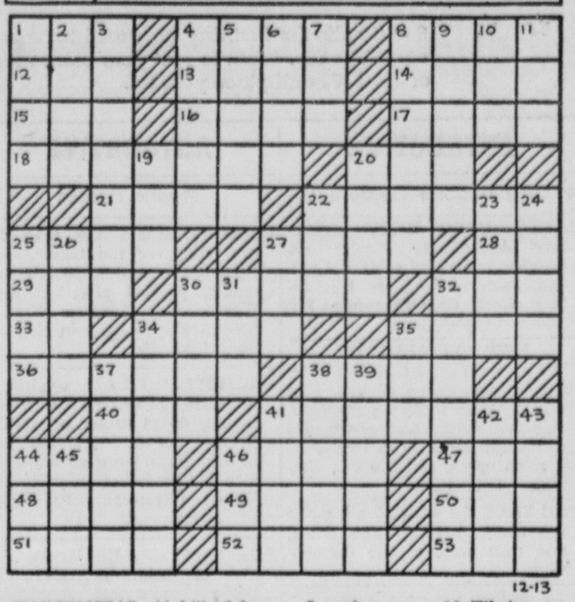

AID SUSPENDED

Kabul traditionally has brought its imports through Pakistan — many of them through Khyber Pass. It stopped when the dispute arose. Pakistan lost a lucrative transport business, but Afghanistan may have cut off its nose to spite its face.

Now the country has no practical way of importing anything. Some goods still come in through the Soviet Union or follow an almost prohibitively expensive roundabout route through Iran.

The United States has virtually suspended aid since materials cannot be brought in.

Will Dedicate New Aquamarina

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Aquamarina, $3 million successor to the city's old aquarium on the banks of Schuylkill, will be dedicated tonight and will open its doors Sunday to the public.

The privately financed enterprise, located in a huge building in South Philadelphia, contains two tanks of 150,000 gallon capacity or more.

The feature attractions are trained porpoises which jump through hoops, dance, and bowl and a large collection of various fish which visitors can view through windows in the side of a tank.

LOW BIDDER

BALTIMORE (AP — A Chambersburg, Pa., firm is the apparent low bidder for alteration of two buildings at the Letterkenny Ordnance Depot in that city, the Corps of Engineers has announced. The corps' district office said Wednesday R. L. Hill & Son submitted a bid of $389,529 for the work the government estimates will cost $361,400.

DROP CHARGE AGAINST AGENT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Traffic charges brought against a treasury agent by Dist. Atty. Frederick O. Brubaker of Berks County have been ordered dismissed by a U.S. District Court judge.

Judge Francis L. Van Dusen took the action Wednesday following an out of court agreement between Brubaker and agent James J. Baldwin.

Brubaker had charged Baldwin's car sideswiped his during a speed chase in Reading last April and that the agent had failed to identify himself after the crash.

Brubaker had chased Baldwin after becoming suspicious about the agent's car which was parked near the district attorney's house.

In the agreement Baldwin said he had been authorized to avoid detection, but would have identified himself had he known he was being chased by the district attorney.

High Democrat Gets State Post

HARRISBURG (AP)—Appointment of Robert P. Kane, former deputy chairman of the Democratic state committee, as a legal officer in the Auditor General's department was disclosed Wednesday.

The 32-year-old York resident began his new duties Dec. 3 at annual salary of $9,923. He was paid $11,000 yearly in the party post.

The Auditor General, Treasury and Internal Affairs Departments —all headed by elected officials— are still in Democratic hands and are expected to absorb some of the party's workers when the Republicans take control of the major portion of state government on Jan. 15.

Do you ever use zucchini (Italian squash) in a salad? Cut off the ends of small zucchini and pare; blanch in boiling water and chill before adding to crisp greens. If you like, you may leave the outside green skin on the squash, slice thin and use as is; in this case be sure to scrub the skin well with a vegetable brush.

Special Elections May Be Called For

HARRISBURG (AP) — Reports circulated here today that Republican legislative leaders may call special elections to fill key vacancies in the House and Senate.

Sen. Samuel B. Wolfe, R-Union, died Wednesday, reducing the Republican margin in the Senate to 26-23 with 26 votes needed for passage of legislation. Wolfe was 84 and a senator since 1946.

The Republican's narrow edge in the House was decreased to 108-101 with the death two weeks ago of Rep. Samuel Dennison, R-Jefferson. In the House, 106 votes are needed for passage.

With their margins thus imperiled and their anxiousness to provide a smooth legislative path for Gov.-elect William W. Scranton, the GOP leaders are said to be seriously considering special elections in advance of the May primaries, when the cost would be considerably less.

John (Big Smoke) Stevens, early chief engineer for the Panama Canal who brilliantly laid the groundwork for actual construction, said the project was plagued in its early stages by three diseases: Yellow fever, malaria and cold feet.

ACE STRESSES "GUN SAFETY" IN ARMS CLASS

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — He shot his mother the first time he fired a shotgun! Now he's rated the country's No. 1 clay target teacher and firearm safety exponent.

That's D. Lee Braun, a tall, lean Texan who for the last 27 years has been one of the country's standout scattergun marksmen. He has more national titles — at skeet and trapshooting — than any other man.

Braun is a professional. In trapshooting a professional is anyone employed by an arms or ammunition company, whether he can shoot or not. If he loses his job, he becomes an amateur immediately. A professional wins titles and trophies, but no cash. As an amateur he can collect money — just the opposite of most sports.

FIREARMS WORKER

For 27 years big Lee has been with a firearms company in the southwest and along the Pacific coast. Although he makes his living with shooters he says:

"You can't make a living shooting. It's a sport that requires a little money."

When he was nine years old in his birthplace of Milano, Tex., his parents decreed he couldn't own a gun. But his grandfather kept a shotgun in the barn, and one evening young Lee sneaked it into the house.

Seated on the edge of his bed he snapped one hammer of the double barrel. Nothing happened. He tried the other, and an explosion rocked the house. The charge of shot tore through the bedroom door, the high head of a new bed in an adjoining room, broke a window and — almost spent — pattered into the back of an old settee on the porch.

SHOT MOTHER

Seated on the settee were Lee's mother and dad, and a couple of the pellets struck "Mom" in the back.

"Didn't hurt her much — not half as much as Dad hurt me," Lee recalls. "But right there I learned to respect firearms. Since then I've spent a lifetime showing people — mostly youngsters — how to handle guns. By the way, that door with the hole in it is still there."

In 1932, while a student at Southern Methodist, he met and married Marian Speight whose birthdate reads 7-11-11, she having been born July 11, 1911. Lee was born Jan. 11, 1911.

As a gun-pointer Braun has held record runs of 308 at skeet with the 28-gauge, 51 with the .410, and back in 1941 he cracked 1021 of 1025 with the 12-gauge for the record average of 99.6. In 1947 he broke 517 straight, and 546 of 550. Last year he duplicated both 1947 feats.

"Just shows I didn't improve much in 14 years," said the laconic Texan now stationed at San Mateo, Calif.

4-TIME WINNER

The 190-poind 6-2 Braun has won the North American 16-yard clay target title four times — and everything else in trapshooting except the Grand American handicap.

He's a soothing guy to have as a coach when you're learning the gun-handling art.

As Lee tells it, trapshooting is easy. He advises:

"Get a gun that fits, preferably one of the smaller gauges without much recoil, and work up to the 12-gauge. Point the gun leisurely, as you would your forefinger, at the flying target. No muscle is involved, and no sharp movements.

"Just lay the gun in your left hand — don't grip it — rest your cheek against the stock as you look straight down the barrel. Move the body, not the gun, as you follow the target."

WESTERN CITY ADDS CENTER FOR SHOPPERS

By KEN CLARK

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — A gentle S curve is being bent into a section of Main St. in this western Colorado city of 18,000.

The curving thoroughfare — possible only in communities blessed with extra-wide downtown streets — is a top feature of a four-block shopping park, which is intended as the showpiece of a general downtown improvement program.

Town fathers call the plan Operation Foresight, the biggest single municipal remodeling project in the history of this city close to the western slope's famous peach orchards.

WILL COVER 25 BLOCKS

When completed, the project will cover 25 square blocks downtown and include store front remodeling, free offstreet parking, covered arcade walkways and a new $150,000 storm sewer.

Unlike shopping mall, constructed in the heart of some cities, the one here will not be closed to automobile traffic. But cars traveling through the S curve area must hold to speeds of not more than 15 or 20 miles per hour, says Police Chief Karl Johnson.

This means that most through traffic will be diverted to Rood and Colorado Aves., which parallel Main St. to the north and south.

Work on the downtown shopping park began early this fall and should be finished by spring, complete with attractive landscaping. Metered parking in the area will be 10 cents an hour, double the present rate. Revenues thus gained will aid in financing offstreet parking elsewhere in the downtown district.

Truck deliveries to Main St. business houses will be restricted to rear entrances with alley access, and any necessary front door deliveries will be made in nonbusiness hours.

Although remodeling of store fronts will be up to the individual owner, a basically uniform plan has been suggested by architects. Indications are it will be generally followed.

Operation Foresight is a frank recognition that Main St. had started to come apart at the seams. Sidewalks were cracked and corroded, curbings were crumbling. No major improvements had been made since a two-inch asphalt mat was laid over the street in 1940.

The project's total cost has been estimated at $402,304. Merchants will pay $290,800 at the rate of $20 per month for each 50 front feet of property. The city will foot the balance.

The new design for Grand Junction's business area comes at a time when plans are being announced for a million-dollar suburban shopping center — the city's first.

Health

It doesn't sound attractive
To be called radioactive.
The fact remains, we are.
Man has always been exposed
To radiation of low intensity
From outer space cosmic rays,
And radioactive materials
In earth's soil and rocks.
It's in air, water and food.
Radiation induced by x-rays
Is now precisely controlled
And contributes to life-saving.

U.S. Woman Diplomat Is Firm With Bulgarian Reds

By LOYAL GOULD

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — Bulgarian Reds took on more than they bargained for when they tangled with a silver-haired American grandmother here.

"They figured she'd be a push-over," a Western diplomat said, "but they didn't know Babitschka."

Babitschka, the Bulgarian for grandmother as she is known affectionately among some of her friends here, is Mrs. Eugenie Anderson, American minister to Sofia and the first female U.S. diplomatic chief of mission in an Iron Curtain country.

Since named to the post by President John F Kennedy May 18, she has embarked on a course of person-to-person diplomacy designed to make America better known in this small Balkan satellite.

As in all Communist countries, this is not so easy.

Obstacles include secret police action, insults at diplomatic receptions and so-called "spontaneous" anti-American demonstrations.

ALL IN JOB

The woman who says she regards these difficulties as just part of her job was born May 26, 1909, in Adair, Iowa, the daughter of a Methodist minister.

She married John Pierce Anderson in 1930 and settled down on his farm in Red Wing, Minn., to raise a family.

The couple now has two grown married children.

But what Mrs. Anderson says started out as a normal Midwest life was abruptly altered by the appearance of Adolf Hitler on the international scene.

"I suddenly became terribly concerned about what was going on in the world," she says, "and took a trip to Germany to find out first hand — it was frightening."

ON WAY UP

Mrs. Anderson began studying the working of democratic government and joined civic groups concerned with the operations of local government.

In 1944, she entered Minnesota politics. Her political activity led to President Harry Truman naming her American ambassador to Denmark in 1949, the first American woman ever to hold ambassadorial rank.

During three years in Copenhagen, she became the first woman to sign a treaty on behalf of the United States with the conclusion of the treaty of trade and navigation in 1951, and learned enough Danish to make nationwide broadcasts and to get her ideas across to Denmark's man in the street.

Nor Mrs. Anderson is learning Bulgarian, and traveling extensively throughout this country.

She had one of her initial opportunities to use her newly acquired language on opening of the American pavilion at the Plovdiv international trade fair last summer.

Although the government-run Bulgarian Chamber of Commerce had approved the distribution of a U.S. legation pamphlet on America, secret police turned up at the American display to confiscate the brochures.

"That got my dander up," she says, "so I went out in front of the pavilion and handed them out myself. You can bet your life the police didn't take any from me."

CALLS IT OFF

Her second test of will came at the height of the Cuban crisis.

"I learned that demonstrations were planned in front of the legation and in front of my home," she says.

"I drove past the legation and noticed the crowds were already forming and no policeman in sight.

"So I headed for the foreign ministry and demanded police protection. After arguing for some time, a ministry spokesman promised to guarantee our safety.

"I asked him how he would and he answered: 'If we can organize a demonstration, we can call it off just as quickly.' "

"It was," Mrs. Anderson said.

HURRIED EXIT

Her latest display of determination occurred at a Soviet diplomatic reception given here during the recently ended Bulgarian Communist Party's Eighth Congress. Guests included the Kremlin's chief ideologist Mikhail Suslov.

After speeches by Red Bloc guests, Bulgarian president Dimiter Ganev stood up to launch a violent attack against the United States, accusing it of aggressive and piratical action against Cuba.

OFFICIAL ADMIRATION

"That was a great display of solidarity that Mrs. Anderson sparked," said a diplomat from a neutral nation in the cold war, "one which you can't help admiring no matter how you view the East-West struggle."

EXPECT SWELL IN TRADE FLOW FROM ABROAD

By DARDEN CHAMBLISS

NEW YORK (AP)—There's an excited new vogue among many American businessmen: Internationalism.

Interviews with executives across the country repeatedly turned up the opinion that prospects of increased international business was the single most inviting economic challenge at the moment.

This enthusiasm reflects what these businessmen themselves admit is a turnabout from the days when tariffs and other protectionist methods were the pillars of American business thought.

BIG SWITCH

While protectionism persists in many quarters and its voice will continue to be heard, the extent of the switch was indicated by the passage this year with relative ease of the Trade Expansion Act empowering the President to slash U.S. tariffs broadly in exchange for foreign cuts.

What brought the change?

"When a camera made in Japan on Monday is selling on a counter here the next Monday," said Chicago businessman Charles Percy, "it's impossible to believe protectionism is the prudent course."

Much of it, too, is the alluring prospect that there are millions of potential customers nearing the point where they will want and buy American consumer goods . . . if only U.S. goods can get to them.

The development of Europe's common market, linking Italy, France, West Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg into an America-like mass market, offers the brightest example of this sort of thing.

"It's like opening up the West," said a New England industrialist.

Despite this enthusiasm for long—term goals, however, these men acknowledge that there may be some bad moments before they are realized.

"Many businesses will go through a cold shower bath as we did when they cut camera tariffs," said Percy, president of Bell and Howell.

Percy is a man who has been through the freer trade battle and has survived with enthusiasm intact.

Hobbyist Fills House With Whittlings

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — An estimated 11,700 hours of whittling have filled C. R. Burden's house, barn and basement with intricate wood carvings.

Burden, 65, has been whittling for 45 years and figures he's averaged five hours a week at turning blocks of wood into chains, coffee tables guitar cases, chests and model log wagon complete with oxen.

A whittler is not the same as a carver, he says. A carver may use a variety of tools, while a whittler employs only a knife — or, in Burdon's case, knives, since he has 75 of them.

A carver is a technician in Burden's view, while a whittler is an artist.

A cedar chest he whittled has 10,263 pieces and Burdon says he has been offered $1,100 for it. But his whittling is only a hobby.

"I can sit down and just start whittling," he says, "and half a day is gone before I know it."

Cadillac

YOUNGEST CADILLAC IN SIXTY-ONE YEARS!

Take a good look at a new 1963 Cadillac and you'll see what we're talking about.

For this one has a freshness . . . a brightness . . . a spirit . . . a flair that you've never seen before in a Cadillac car.

It's the look of youth—and it's written in every clean, crisp line . . . and mirrored in every lithe, nimble move the car makes.

And so it is not surprising that this beautiful new Cadillac is adding a host of youthful admirers to the ranks of its enthusiasts.

Nor is it remarkable that so many younger motorists can be seen this year at its wheel.

In fact, motorists of all ages have taken this Cadillac to their hearts as never before. The reception that has been accorded this new "car of cars"—whether measured by the praise of its followers or the number of its owners—is simply without precedent.

Why not visit your authorized Cadillac dealer soon—and see for yourself what the talk is all about?

Young in fact or young at heart—we know you'll want to make it yours!

Cooking Is Fun

By Cecily Brownstone

LUNCHBOX GOODIES

An odd recipe, but it tastes okay! Cooks remain interested in it, so here's a new version.

Tuna and Egg Sandwiches
Pickles and Carrot Sticks
Tomato Spice Cake Fruit

TOMATO SPICE CAKE

2 cups flour
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon each nutmeg, cloves and allspice
1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 egg (well beaten)
½ cup vegetable oil
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 cup raisins

Sift together the flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and spices. Stir baking soda into tomato sauce and add to sifted dry ingredients with egg, oil, walnuts and raisins; mix well. Turn into two greased 8-inch layer pans. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 25 minutes. Turn out and cool. Fill and frost with fluffy white or lemon-butter icing.

SATURDAY BUFFET SUPPER

Something to make now and use all through the holiday season!

Baked Ham Potato Puff
Broccoli Salad French Bread
Ice Cream with Raisin Mincemeat

RAISIN MINCEMEAT

1 package (15 ounces) raisins
3 cups finely chopped pared apples
¾ cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
1 teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon mace
¼ teaspoon ginger
⅛ teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Juice of 1 orange (about ½ cup)
Juice of 1 lemon (about ¼ cup)
½ cup cognac

Mix all ingredients except the cognac in a large saucepan. Slowly bring to a boil, stirring often; cover and simmer 1½ hours, stirring occasionally. Mix in cognac. Store, covered, in refrigerator. Makes about 1 quart. Fold 1 cup of the Raisin Mincement into 1 quart soft but not melted vanilla ice cream; pack into a 1-quart melon mold; freeze; unmold at serving time. The Raisin Mincemeat may also be used as a filling for cookies, baked apples, yeast breads and turnovers.

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER

Here's how we make our favorite water cress soup with one of the new mixes.

Quick Water Cress Soup
Sliced Meat with Lettuce and Tomatoes

QUICK WATER CRESS SOUP

1 can (2⅜ ounces) cream of potato dry soup mix
2 cups cold water
1 chicken bouillon cube
1 cup milk
1 to 1 cups water cress leaves

Gradually stir the cold water into the dry soup mix; stir until smooth. Add the bouillon cube. Stirring constantly, slowly bring to a boil. Partly cover and simmer 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add the milk and water cress; reheat, stirring. Makes 4 small servings.

FAMILY DINNER

Minute Steaks Rutabaga Potatoes
Green Peas Salad Bowl
Fruit and Cookies Beverage

RUTABAGA POTATOES

1⅛ cups each diced pared rutabaga and potatoes (1 inch cubes)
Boiling water
Salt
2 to 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
Pepper and nutmeg

Cook the rutabage and potatoes in a medium saucepan, covered, with boiling water almost to cover and ½ teaspoon salt until tender — 20 minutes or longer. Drain, return to saucepan to dry over low heat, and mash; to make extremely smooth and blended put through a food mill or strainer. Add butter, salt and pepper to taste, plus a pinch of nutmeg; reheat. Makes 4 servings.

AFTERNOON TEA

Louise Crocker's Nut Roll

Tea with Lemon or Milk

LOUISE CROCKER'S NUT ROLL

¾ cup milk
¼ pound butter or margarine (soft)
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup warm water
1 package active dry yeast
2 eggs (beaten until thick)
4 to 4½ cups (about) flour
Lemon Nut Filling

Scald milk; remove from heat; stir in butter, sugar and salt; cool to lukewarm. Pour water (110 to 115 degrees) into a large mixing bowl; add yeast; stir to dissolve; stir in lukewarm milk mixture, beaten eggs and 2 cups of the flour; beat until smooth. Beat in well enough more flour, with your hand, until dough comes away from hand. Place in lightly greased bowl, turning over. Cover; let rise in warm place (85 degrees) until doubled in bulk — about 2 hours. Punch down. Turn out on prepared pastry cloth; cut in half. Roll out, one half at a time to make two rectangles, each 14 by 10 inches. Spread with Lemon Nut Filling; roll tightly. Place the two filled rolls in a shallow pan and let rise 30 minutes. Spread tops with soft butter. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 45 to 60 minutes or until well browned.

Lemon Nut Filling: Put 8 ounces walnuts through food-per; add 1 cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, grated rind of 1 lemon and 1¾ cups milk. Cook gently, stirring occasionally, until thick enough to spread; cool before spreading on dough.

FAMILY LUNCH

In a hurry? Try this dish!

Vegetable Rarebit Crisp Bacon
Coffee Cake Beverage

VEGETABLE RAREBIT

1 can (11 ounces) condensed cheddar cheese soup
⅓ cup milk
1 package (10 ounces) frozen carrots and peas (cooked and drained)
1 can (6 ounces) broiled sliced mushrooms (drained)

In a medium saucepan, slowly stir the milk into the soup. Add the cooked drained carrots and peas and the mushrooms. Heat gently, stirring occasionally; do not boil. Serve over crisp buttered toast. Makes 6 servings.

FRIDAY FARE

This simple luncheon menu is attractive enough to serve when a friend or two drop in for an informal visit.

Grilled Cheese Sandwiches
Molded Ruby Salad
Cookies Beverage

MOLDED RUBY SALAD

1 package (3 ounces) raspberry-flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup cold cranberry juice cocktail
1 cup Tokay grapes (halved and seeded)

Pour boiling water over gelatin and stir to dissolve; stir in cranberry juice cocktail. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in grapes. Turn into individual molds; chill until set. At serving time unmold gelatin and serve salad greens with mayonnaise or a creamy French dressing. Makes 6 servings.

SATURDAY TEA

Sour Cream Chocolate Cookies
Tea with Milk or Lemon

SOUR CREAM CHOCOLATE COOKIES

1 cup sifted cake flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon each baking powder and baking soda
1 egg
½ cup sugar
1 square (1 ounce) unsweetened chocolate
½ cup commercial sour cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
Chocolate Frosting

Sift together the flour, salt, baking powder and baking soda. Beat egg until thickened and pale yellow; add sugar and continue beating until blended. Melt chocolate over hot (not boiling) water and cool slightly by placing pan in cold water briefly; add to egg mixture and beat to blend. Add sour cream and vanilla; beat to blend. Gradually fold in sifted dry ingredients. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto ungreased cookie sheet; bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 8 minutes. Cool on wire rack and then top with Chocolate Frosting.

Chocolate Frosting: Melt ½ cup semisweet chocolate pieces over hot (not boiling) water; cool slightly. Blend in ⅓ cup commercial sour cream and ½ teaspoon vanilla.

THE BRIDE COOKS DINNER

A quick and savory way to prepare a nutritious meat.

Savory Skillet Liver
Mashed Potatoes Green Beans
Salad Bowl Bread Tray
Lemon Pie Beverage

SAVORY SKILLET LIVER

1 pound baby beef liver
1 tablespoon salad oil
1 tablespoon wine vinegar
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon onion salt
¼ teaspoon celery salt
1 tablespoon butter

Have liver sliced between ¼ and ½ inch thick. Mix the oil, vinegar, salt, onion salt and celery salt and turn liver in the mixture; allow to stand about ½ hour. Life liver from marinade and cook in a skillet in hot butter over moderate heat to desired doneness, turning to brown both sides. This should take only 3 to 5 minutes. Makes 3 servings.

Family Food Facts

If this holiday season is like most others, and chances are good that it will be, Mother is going to be busier than any two people ought to be. No matter how carefully you plan your schedule, at the last minute there just won't be time enough to do everything. So, act now and you'll have more time to relax with the family later on, suggests Tom Piper, Penn State Extension Marketing Agent.

Better check the cupboards and the spice rack to make certain that you have all the ingredients for that extra baking. For further saving in time, why not make up rolls of cookie dough and store them in the freezer ready to slice and place in the oven at the last minute. If there's room in the freezer you may want to store pies, cakes or even complete meals; this will provide more free time later for last minute shopping and attention to other details.

Beef bargains are expected to be more abundant this week as retailers seek a change-of-pace meat for consumer incentive. Pork continues to offer real value for the meat dollar with pork loin roasts, chops, picnics, bacon and smoked butts attractively priced. Slightly higher prices are noted for lamb and chicken. Turkey future prices have slipped lower on the Mercantile Exchange board, an indication that retail prices may assume this trend next week.

Oranges, grapefruit, apples, grapes, cranberries and bananas provide a wide variety of tasty and reasonably priced fruit. The Florida orange and grapefruit movement to fresh market is running well ahead of last year and quality is improving each week. Tangelos are reaching full maturity and flavor is reported good.

Shipments of fresh vegetables are on the increase as winter producing areas are now harvesting. Items in heaviest supply include potatoes, cabbage, lettuce, sweet potatoes, squash and cauliflower. Celery, beets, tomatoes, endive, escarole and other salad ingredients are reasonably priced.

Eggs are lower in price and offer excellent food value for the money. Grade A large size eggs now offer greatest value on a weight basis. Holiday occasions use eggs pickled, deviled or in eggnogs . . . and most baking recipes include eggs. Better include this item on the shopping list for it offers economy with convenience.

Two Democratic Solons Are Opposed To Tax Cut

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here's President Kennedy, getting set for his Florida holidays and maybe hoping Santa Claus will be nice to him, when up pop Rep. Wilbur Mills and Sen. Harry Byrd, both of them ani-Santa Claus.

Just a few months ago Kennedy promised a 1963 tax cut for people and corporations to perk up the economy. This week Mills said he can't see any excuse for it and doesn't think the economy has been deteriorating.

For Mills to say this was almost like shooting the old gentleman in the red suit just as he got one foot down the chimney. It also created a problem for Kennedy which he didn't solve in 1962 and may not solve next year.

HEADS COMMITTEE

Mills, an Arkansas Democrat, is chairman of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee which originates all tax legislation.

It was this group, where Democrats outnumber Republicans 15 to 10, which this year bottled up Kennedy's program of medical care for the aged. Mills was against it. He, more than any man, frustrated Kennedy on this one.

And Byrd, Virginia Democrat and chairman of the Senate's Finance Committee, says he is against a tax cut so long as government spending exceeds its income. A tax cut might make the deficit greater, at least for a while.

FORMIDABLE FOE

Byrd, who didn't support Kennedy in the 1960 presidential campaign, has opposed many of his programs. Because of his position as chairman of the Finance Committee he is a formidable opponent.

Yet, Kennedy has treated both Mills and Byrd very gently. His gentleness, however, has not been particularly persuasive, although Mills did help him out on other programs.

Kennedy has received a lot of support for his tax-cut proposal, inside and outside his administration. He was backed quickly by Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon and Walter Heller, chairman of his Council of Economic Advisers.

UNION WANTS CUT

The AFL-CIO wants a tax cut next year, just as it did this year. And the highly conservative U.S. Chamber of Commerce wants a cut. So did Kennedy's Labor-Management Advisory Committee.

Kennedy, unless he decides on an entirely new political strategy, will probably handle Mills and Byrd next year just as he did in the past: no visible arm-twisting, no name-calling.

This all seems to fit in with either the President's way of life or his idea of running the presidency: Avoid making individual enemies or group enemies, if at all possible.

There is a limit to how much this nice and delicate approach to politics will pay off if pursued indefinitely. Kennedy, from all appearances, plans to run for re-election in 1964.

CAMPAIGN ISSUES

He's going to have to go to the voters with some solid legislative performances, particularly those he made the most to-do about, like medical care and a tax cut.

If he gets neither before the 1964 elections he can't complain to the voters that the Republicans blocked him. His Democrats so outnumber the Republicans in Congress they could push anything through if they stuck together.

But they haven't stuck together. Mills and Byrd are prime examples of that. If Kennedy does not get rough with either of them in 1963 or 1964, he probably can expect from them what he got in 1962.

There is no evidence that he'd get more if he did get rough. Yet, since the gentle touch hasn't worked, the rough one might. So far Kennedy has shown no inclination to try it.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

"Through a clerical error, our billing department undercharged you $87.63 on your last month's credit card account. But since it was our fault, and in consideration of the fact Christmas is near, we'd just like you to forget the whole matter."

"As your landlord we wish to express our appreciation of you as a tenant these last 15 years. So we are installing a new refrigerator and stove in your apartment immediately, and beginning next month your rent will be reduced $35. Anytime your wife would like to have the place repainted—at our expense naturally—please let us know."

IMPRESSED RED

"It is my pleasure to inform you that Premier Khrushchev was deeply impressed by the letter you wrote to your newspaper outlining the 10 basic errors of the Kremlin. He has asked me if you and your family would consent to be his guests for a two-month winter vacation in Switzerland, where he would like to meet you to discuss questions of international policy more fully. It will not be necessary to bring skis or overshoes, as they will be provided by the Soviet government."

"Our publishing firm was sent a copy of your last talk to your local Rotary Club. It is our wish to include it in a new volume we are issuing to be called, 'Great Inspirational Messages of the 20th Century.' We are enclosing a check for $500 against advance royalties."

WALLET IN TAXI

"I found the wallet you lost in a taxi. In going through it for identification papers I came across the photo of a girl with a fresh and exciting face—a girl I take to be your daughter. As a motion picture talent scout, I wonder if she would be interested in a film career? Although we could offer her only $750 a week to start, her future earnings would be—"

"Sir, you don't know me, but I know you. I am a bus driver. Last July 19 at 8:03 a.m. on Swampshore Drive you got on my bus and gave me a $5 bill. I gave you back 100 nickels in change. My conscience has been bothering me ever since. It was a mean thing to do, and I want you to know it will never, never happen again."

"My wife, Jacqueline, And I are both delighted with your patriotic gift to the government of the golden oak chiffonier, circa 1904, left to you by your late Aunt Milly, and we will be glad to find a place for it in the White House. In going through one of the drawers, I stumbled across 37 old shares of AT&T stock which your aunt apparently had hidden there. I return it to you herewith."

AN ACE OF A FAMILY

GREENVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Holes-in-one are becoming a tradition in the golfing family of Jess P. Dart.

Dart started it in the 1961 season and his daugher-in-law, Mrs. Paul Dart, fired an ace a short time later. Dart got another last winter in Florida and son, Paul, shot an ace late this season.

Gypsy Theme Sets New Broadway Pace

With "The Student Gypsy or the Prince of Liederkranz" set down already for Broadway presentation in January, Padula has acquired for next season "Bajour," a musical about Bohemian vagabonds who move from city to city, telling fortunes and tricking the gullible.

Membership Down In Actors' Union

NEW YORK (AP) — To find more employment for its shrinking membership, the Hebrew Actors' Union is collaborating with several theatrical producers on ethnic stage projects.

A modern version of Abraham Goldfadden's "Two Idiots" is to be performed by a cast including several HAU players along with a dozen performers from Israel. Other undertakings are a topical revue and establishment of a repertory group.

GIs Expect Woman Writer To Be Feminine, Pretty

By BEVERLY DEEPE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —Being the only woman correspondent among 10,000 U.S. servicemen may sound like a dream.

It is.

But it has its nightmarish moments.

Mine is not the placid kind of life where you must set a clock to get up in the morning. My alarm is either the blast of a 155 mm. howitzer or the bite of a particularly vicious mosquito.

I spend one-half my time touring the Vietnamese countryside — by plane, train or foot.

The twisting T-28 fighter missions and helicopter operations can give you a bruised backside. The coastal train is constantly sabotaged, and that fact always adds spice to a ride. All-night patrols through Viet Congo guerrilla territory are hard on the metatarsals at least.

Once I even rode an elephant.

HAS DUAL ROLE

But perhaps my biggest challenge is that most of the fellows stationed here expect me to be a living symbol of the wives and sweethearts they left in the United States. And they expect it even in the field.

I should be feminine, but not fragile. I should be able to change from sportsdress to flight suit as most women change housedresses. I should look dresh in fatigues during a 5 a.m. downpour. Or scaling a slippery rice dike on a dark patrol.

They expect me to be a typical American girl even with cold water instead of cold cream, soup chinoise instead of cheeseburgers, flightsuit coveralls instead of pretty clothes.

FELLOWS CONFUSED

Yet, this dual role also baffles the GIs. Should they help me into a jeep, even though there's no door to open? Should they carry my camera case on a patrol, or treat me like a new private?

Whether married or single, they are all geographical bachelors. But they remain gallant gentlemen, being satisfied to talk with any woman "who speaks English and knows something about the New York Yankees." Many a long evening conversation has ended with the GI showing me a picture of his wife and priceless children.

Part of their gentlemanship is enforced by Memorandum 21, prohibiting women in "bachelor's quarters." When first arriving in Viet Nam, I was introduced to Mem. 21 the dangerous way.

Sitting in a proper captain's room, six of us were catching up on the latest jokes and scandals always circulating in Viet Nam. To our amazement, in walked the detachment commander, who promptly ordered me from the room and reprimanded the servicemen. The episode was investigated by Saigon headquarters, which considered giving the captain a general courtmartial.

TRIBESMEN MEMORABLE

And the social life? Dates scheduled more than three days in advance are unheard of. Chances are either HE or I will be hopping around the country.

I recall the elegant plans I had made for my birthday. Then my escort was called out on an emergency flight the night before. I didn't feel the disappointment so much that he left; it was just I worried if he'd return.

The servicemen here are dedicated fighting men who have often cheated death — but few ever mention their Purple Hearts and Silver Stars.

And I'll never forget the many Vietnamese I've met, like an old Montagnard village chief who told me, with quiet conviction: "I'd pull the pin on my last grenade and kill myself if I ran out of ammunition against the Viet Cong."

ON QUIET STREET

Back in Saigon when I return from the countryside, I live on the quietest, most well-guarded, well-blockaded streets in Saigon, only half a block from the Presidential Palace. It is a high-ceiled, stucco-walled flat of French design with electric switches that shock me upon touching them. Bats flying in and out of the open-shuttered balcony, and small lizard-like creatures chase the mosquitoes that chase me.

It is a quiet apartment — until my Vietnamese maid washes my silk shantung sheath or white leather slippers, or polishes my black spike heels with suntan lotion.

But when things get loud and frantic, I am the only correspondent here who can seek the quietest of all places to write copy — under a hairdryer.

Diplomacy Drama Headed For Stage

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Interpreter," a play that has been reworked by its author 15 times in four years, is on its way to Broadway.

Eric Rudd, a freelance translator at the United Nations, found the many revisions necessary in his drama about diplomacy because of the rapid shifts in world events.

The production is scheduled to start a 20-week tour in December, preparatory to arrival here.

SCORNS WOMEN IN PINCURLS

NEW YORK (AP) — "It is scandalous that American women walk on the streets with their hair in pincurls," says Alexandre famous Parisian hairdresser. "You would never see this in Paris or London."

He says in rapid-fire French: "Why don't these girls get up 15 minutes earlier in the morning and comb out their curls before they go to work? But no, they put a bandanna over their hair to go to the office where they comb it but."

Housewives are the worst offenders, he says. They go to the market in bandanna-covered pincurls, but they don't even bother to cover the rollers when their husbands are around.

"It is not good. Years ago women made an effort to be the coquette with their husbands. If she had to wear rollers, she'd look even lovelier than usual, covering the curls in a pretty lace cap."

Carelessness in grooming is what separates plain women from beautiful women, he says.

"Women like the Duchess of Windsor, Mrs. Kennedy, Princess Grace of Monaco, Mrs. Henry Ford and Madame Alphand, wife of the French ambassador, would never be observed in the disarray of hair curlers. They look lovely all the time."

The duchess who "made his career," he says, and the other ladies mentioned have one thing in common: They never overdress. "Their simplicity is chic. They are not the type women who must wear the latest chichi shoe or whatever to be in style."

Alexandre dressed Jacqueline Kennedy's hair for a state dinner at Versailles on the Kennedys' European visit more than a year ago.

Alexandre is not touting wigs, but he thinks they would come in handy for American housewives to wear early in the morning. Later, they could set their hair and after 6 "could become enchantresses" to welcome their husbands for the evening. They could use small hair pieces to change the look of their short daytime coiffures, he explains. Some of these hairdos were shown recently at a special showing here arranged by the Internationale des Coiffeurs de Dames of which he is a member, a worldwide organization of hairdressers with a membership limited to 100 in America.

He showed a heart-shaped hair line at the back of the head that makes into an easily convertible hairstyle with or without hair pieces. It may be gathered up with hair pieces to achieve top-of-the-head curls or side curls. Just about any effect may be achieved by keeping the hair reasonably short in back, a little longer at the sides, and using the number of hair pieces required to accomplish a lovely hairdo for evening. It should be guided by the contours of your face, he says.

COSMOS CLUB ACCEPTS NEGRO

WASHINGTON (AP)—The elite Cosmos Club, whose rejection of a Negro for membership a year ago set off a stir that reached to the White House, has accepted its first Negro member.

John Hope Franklin, chairman of the Department of History at Brooklyn College, N.Y., was elected by the club's admissons committee Monday night.

Last January, the club's admissions committee turned down the application of Carl Rowan, a Negro, who is a deputy assistant secretary of state for public affairs.

It brought an outcry of discrimination and several government officials resigned, including John Kenneth Galbraith, ambassador to India, who had proposed President Kennedy for membership.

"Being a member or not a member is a matter of conscience," Galbraith announced then. "And mine was best served by resigning."

And Kennedy passed the word that he did not want to join.

Stamp News

The first United States Christmas postage stamp, discussed previously in this column, depicts the traditional holiday symbols — burning tapers and an evergreen wreath with a red bow. The lettering is in Old English. The new 4-center which was first placed on sale in Pittsburgh will remain available for sale until December 31.

Intended for use on season's greeting cards, the new stamp ties in with the Post Office Department's "Shop and Mail Early" campaign. According to Postmaster General J. Edward Day, the stamp will serve a double function. It will supply a colorful fillip to greeting cards and will encourage the use of first-class postal rate for such cards thus providing preferred handling and return-to-sender service in the event of nondelivery.

Day also announced that there are plans to reissue a Christmas stamp during future holiday seasons.

Congo issued a set of overprinted stamps to commemorate the reorganization of the Cyrille Adoula ministry. The basic stamp shows Dag Hammarskjold, and was originally issued on July 11. New values are overprinted.

Brazil has issued a new 8 cruzeiros stamp honoring Julio Mesquita, journalist and founder of the city of Sao Paulo, on the 100th anniversary of his birth.

Also from Brazil comes word that new stamps will be issued to honor the centennial of Dr. Quintino Bocainva, football championships and the 140th anniversary of Brazilian independence.

Mr. Shnoo's Zoo

BY LUCRECE BEALE

Chapter 10

THE BIRDS BEGIN TO SING

MR. SINOO watched in astonishment as Herbert and Louise came toward him. The giraffes swung their long necks to and fro and dipped their heads. The enormous straw hats between their ears tilted over their eyes and they looked like ladies of fashion strolling on the beach.

The keeper who had charge of the large animals cried out and started away to head off the giraffes but Mr. Shnoo said, "Wait!" and held up his hand.

He saw a short round man walking between Herbert's front legs and he knew suddenly just who it was. "Thank goodness!" he exclaimed. He went up to the little round man and said, "I was afraid you wouldn't come!"

"Of course I came," said Santa, for that is who it was. "But it took me a few minutes to work out a plan."

"What is the plan" asked Mr. Shnoo. "What can we do?"

"Bring a ladder," said Santa.

Mr. Shnoo brought a ladder and Santa propped it up against Herbert's neck. Santa climbed up to the basket on Herbert's back and took out a big brown bucket over his arm and climbed up to Herbert's chin. He dipped the brush in the bucket and began to paint Herbert's neck.

"What kind of paint is that?" asked Mr. Shnoo.

"Isn't paint," replied Santa. It's honey."

When he had finished painting Herbert's neck with honey he went over and did the same thing to Louise

"Now," he said. "We'll see what happens." He led Herbert under the nearest tree. The giraffe pushed his neck up, up through the branches until the hat on his head was at the very tip top of the tree.

Then Mr. Shnoo exclaimed, "Why, it's not a hat at all!"

It was a nest of straw. As soon as the birds saw it they fluttered from the branches and settled in the nest. Other birds found the honey and they gathered on Herbert's neck like flies on sticky paper. Many of them slid or were pushed off and as they fell they landed in the basket on Herbert's back which was filled with straw and made the nicest kind of nest.

Then Louise took her place under another tree and Herbert was led to the bird cage where the birds were gently coaxed off Herbert and into their old nests. Herbert made three trips and Louise made three trips and when they finished there wasn't a single bird left out in the cold.

Mr. Shnoo turned up the heat in the cages and the zoo doctor rushed around filling hot water bottles to put in the nests and arranging steam kettles to moisten the air.

But it was clear the birds were ailing. They shivered and their feathers drooped and their eyes were dull. Bule Lady, the paraket, was the sickest of all. Her eyelids fluttered, then closed, and she lay on her back with her tiny legs straight up in the air.

Mr. Shnoo put his finger on her breast. Her heart was beating very faintly.

"Poor Blue Lady," murmured Mr. Shnoo Tears gathered in his eyes and rolled down his cheeks. Herbert and Louise, whom no one had had time to take back to the giraffe house, leaned over his shoulder and cried, too.

It was very sad because everyone knew that Blue Lady and all the other birds were going to die.

But Santa wasn't sad. He was busy at a stove in the corner. He was cooking a strange concoction made from pills and powders and drops of oil taken from the little bag on his back. He stirred and tasted and sniffed until finally he was satisfied

He took the pan from the stove and set fire to its contents. It did not flame up but gently smoldered. As wisps of smoke drifted up, the bird cage filled with the most wonderful fragrance and suddenly a marvelous thing happened: All the birds began to sing!

WILL STUDY JOBLESS PAY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gov.-elect William Scranton says one of his first recommendations in office will be a complete study of the state's unemployment compensation fund and law.

Scranton told a news conference Wednesday that the fund is in debt $112 million to the federal government. Correcting this condition will be a complex job, he added.

Scranton also said there will be some changes made in the Milk Control Commission.

"I think the Milk Control Commission has been operated primarily on a political basis and apparently on instruction from the governor's office rather than as an independent agency," he said.

Scranton also met with representatives of the "Women of Donora," a civic group pressing for the creation of new job opportunities in economically-ailing Donora.

Scranton told the women he has already discussed this problem with Board Chairman Roger Blough and President Leslie Worthington of U. S. Steel Corp., and with Robert Ryan, head of southwestern Pennsylvania's Regional Industrial Development Corp.

Prime Minister Frequent Visitor Of Presidents

By SID MOODY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Next to his own wife, it seems an American President sees more of the British prime minister than any one else.

When President Kennedy and Prime Minister Macmillan sit down together in Nassau December 19 it will mark the 17th conference between the leaders of the United States and Britain in the last 10 years.

The talk sites have ranged all over the Atlantic coastline from Key West, Fla., to New York, Bermuda and London (See map). They have generally served to patch up cracks in the strong alliance between the United Kingdom and the U.S. and plan for the future.

COORDINATE POLICY

While not as cheap as a phone call, the talks provide an informal opportunity for the two leaders to get to know one another as well as coordinate policy with an intimacy no other means of communications can offer.

A brief capsule resume of the Anglo-American talks since 1952:

January 6, 1952: Churchill-Truman at Washington. Discussed relations with Russia, the command structure of NATO, the Iranian oil crisis, German rearmament and atomic energy.

January 6-8, 1953: Churchill-President-elect Eisenhower at New York. An "informal exploration of future British-American relations." Eisenhower not yet president so no formal statement issued but discussions covered Korean War, European defense and possible easing of trade barriers to help British economy.

FINAL MEETING

January 9, 1953: Churchill-Truman at Washington. A final meeting covering most of the matters brought up a year earlier.

June 25, 1954: Churchill-Eisenhower at Washington. Topics included French delay on ratifying European Defense Community, how to restore German sovereignty, a proposal for a Southeast Asia defensive alliance, and means to a fuller exchange of atomic information.

January 31, 1956: Eden-Eisenhower at Washington. Rejection of Soviet offer of a 20-year nonaggression pact, British request for U.S. support in Israel-Egypt dispute and admission of China to the United Nations were topics on the agenda.

March 20, 1957: Eden-Eisenhower at Bermuda. An attempt to heal breach caused by Anglo-French invasion of Suez. U.S. agreed to let Britain have guided missiles. Both agreed to continue atomic testing. U.S. said it would cooperate closely but not join Baghdad Pact.

October 24, 1957: Macmillan-Eisenhower at Washington. Talks followed Russia's Sputnik I. Two partners agreed to pool arms, atomic weapons and scientific knowledge.

June 9, 1958: Macmillan-Eisenhower at Washington. Prime Minister on way home from visiting mother's Indiana birthplace. Discussions covered Russian proposal for summit talks, British desire for greater trade with Russia and low Western prestige in Middle East.

March 10, 1959: Macmillan-Eisenhower at Camp David, Md., and Washington. Two leaders agreed to summit conference with Khrushchev and to moderate West's insistence on reunification of Germany as the first objective in Europe.

August 27, 1959: Macmillan-Eisenhower at London. Informal talks during Eisenhower's European trip covered upcoming summit conference, tactics in handling recent Soviet moves in Europe, disarmament. The President and prime minister later made joint TV appearance.

AT CAMP DAVID

March 26, 1960: Macmillan-Eisenhower at Camp David. Prime minister came to prevent split among allies over Russia's halting of nuclear testing.

March 26, 1961: Macmillan-Kennedy at Key West. Kennedy asked for meeting to get full agreement on steps toward intervention in Laos before talks were to begin few days later at Southeast Treaty Organization conference.

April 5-6, 1961: Macmillan-Kennedy at Washington. Talks covered West Berlin, Red China, U.N. and aid to undeveloped nations. No formal communique released.

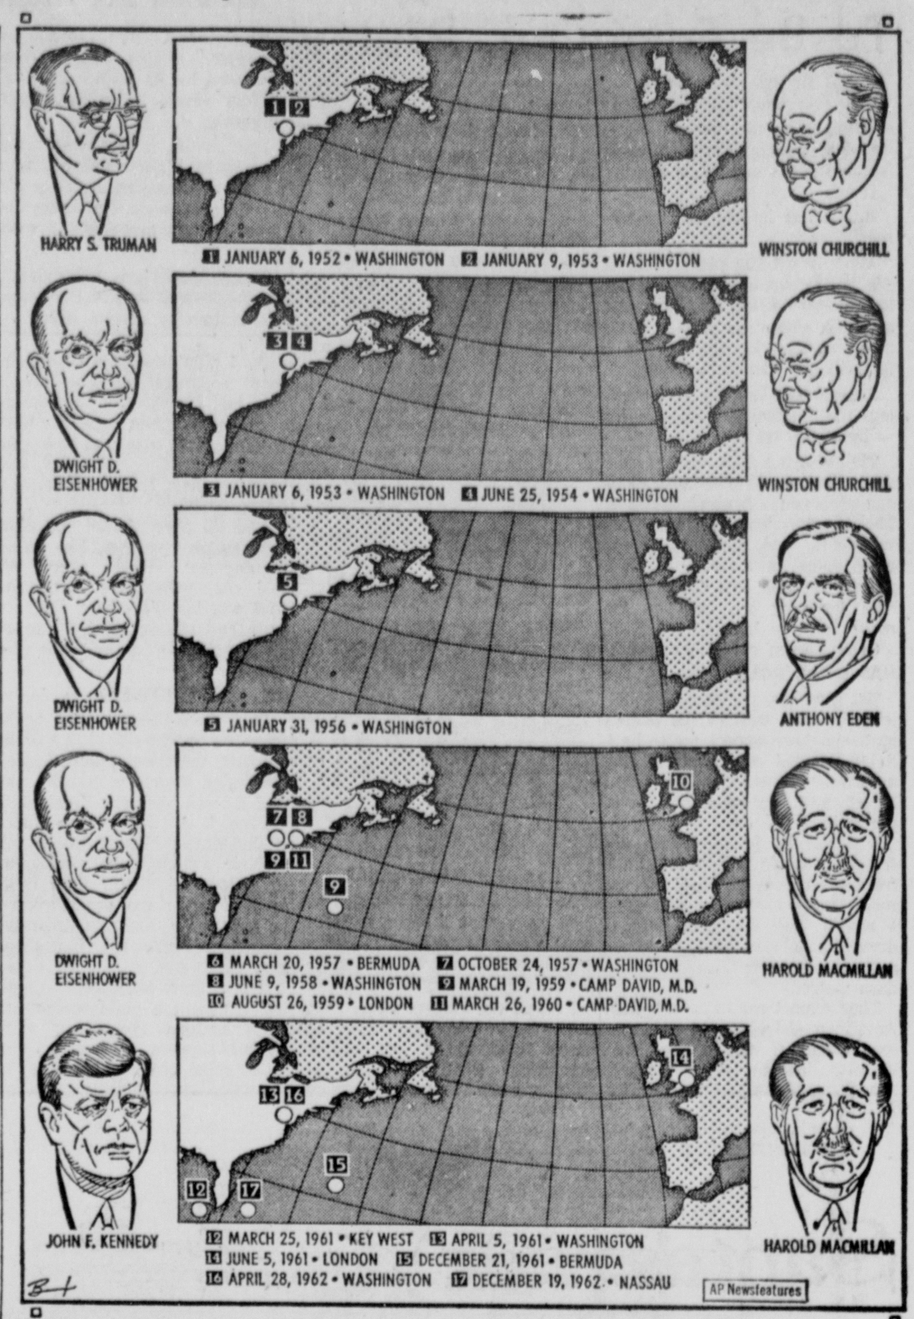

June 5, 1961: Macmillan-Kennedy at London. Announced "satisfaction" with Russia's support of plan to neutralize Laos. Agreed West Berlin must be kept strong.

BERLIN WALL

December 21, 1961: Macmillan-Kennedy at Bermuda. Discussed Berlin wall, preparations for nuclear testing, Indian-Goa crisis, future of U.N., West New Guinea and urgency of Congo negotiations between Prime Ministers Adoula and Tshombe.

April 28, 1962: Macmillan-Kennedy at Washington. Talked over European Common Market and its effect on Britain, disarmament, resumption by West of nuclear testing and said they were ready to meet at summit with Russia but doubted if conditions were right at the moment.

December 19, 1962: Macmillan-Kennedy at Nassau. Time will tell.

RED PREMIER SAYS PLEDGES MUST BE KEPT

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev declared Wednesday that if American pledges on Cuba are not fulfilled "we will be compelled to take such actions as the situation requires of us."

He was speaking to the Supreme Soviet.

The statement was made at the end of an hour of speaking in the great Kremlin hall during which the premier said the Soviet Union had demonstrated it could preserve peace.

"We will never leave revolutionary Cuba in trouble," Khrushchev said.

"We will defend the right of the Cuban people to pursue their bright future."

He paid credit to President Kennedy as having an interest in preserving peace in the Caribbean and said both were negotiating so that pledges on both sides would be kept.

It was then that he thundered out his warning that the pledges must be kept.

Khrushchev, referring to what he apparently meant by President Kennedy's "pledge," said the United States had promised "not to attack the republic of Cuba and to restrain its allies from doing so."

But despite the implied threat, the Khrushchev speech appeared to have a defensive tone. He remarked that there was no question of who won in the Cuban crisis, saying that "sanity and the cause of peace" were the winners.

Khrushchev's warning came after he had claimed the Soviet Union had prevented an attack on Cuba by "aggressive circles" of the United States to avert "the direct threat of a thermonuclear world war."

The Soviet leader, in a major foreign policy speech, called for "renunciation of war among states as a means of settling international disputes (and) their solution through negotiations."

BELIEVE REDS HAVE 15,000 MEN IN CUBA

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. sources estimated today that between 2,000 and 3,000 Soviet troops have left Cuba during the past few weeks.

This withdrawal leaves in Cuba the bulk of Soviet military personnel sent there for missilery and other activities.

Estimates on the number still there range from 9,000 to 15,000. The estimates on the withdrawals also range widely because of difficulty in figuring how many men may be aboard outbound ships.

CAUSE OF DISPUTE

This continuing Soviet military presence in Cuba has been one of the factors keeping the U.S.-Soviet dispute lingering on after the removal of Soviet missiles and bombers.

Premier Khrusuchev has written President Kennedy that Soviet units associated with the offensive weapons will be withdrawn in due course.

But this left a lot to be pinned down. Among other things, it is not known here whether the Kremlin considered the short-range antiaircraft missiles in Cuba to be protection for the longer range offensive weapons—and therefore now intends to withdraw them.

Originally, the administration expressed the view that the Soviet military personnel entering Cuba were advisers and technicians, not troops.

HAVE NO EVIDENCE

Kennedy said on Aug. 28 that "we have no evidence of troops" in Cuba, and on Sept. 13, at his last news conference before the crisis, He was still referring to technicians.

The Washington assessment changed fast with the discovery of the offensive weapons in Cuba. The Russians themselves were found to be setting up the missile sites, and presumably they would man the missiles.

Some reports indicate that the personnel originally sent to Cuba as rocket experts have been reformed into regular army units now that their offensive weapons have been withdrawn.

Some officials feel that there was nothing surprising about this—that it's a routine military procedure for personnel under such circumstances and does not indicate the missilemen will be kept in Cuba as ground combat troops.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Kennedy, at a White House luncheon in honor of Chile's President Jorge Alessandri, commented that Alessandri told him that he and two of his brothers were members of the Chilean Senate at the same time.

"My view is there should not be such concentration," Kennedy said in a tongue-in-cheek toast to his Chilean counterpart, "but he has survived and maybe others will."

Kennedy's two brothers, Robert F. and Edward M., are the U.S. attorney general and a U.S. senator, respectively.

Gen. George H. Decker, who recently retired as Army chief of staff, will join the Manufacturing Chemists' Association as assistant to the president, it was announced in Washington. Gen. John E. Hull says he plans to retire May 30 as president of the chemical industry trade organization after eight years in office.

John G. Diefenbaker, Canada's prime minister, has rejected a United Nations proposal to impose trade sanctions against South Africa in protest against that nation's apartheid—racial segregation—policy.

Bob Hope is still alive—just in case you heard a rumor he was dead.

Told that an American newspaper had been flooded with calls from people asking if it were true he had died in London, where he's making a movie, the comedian quipped: "I'm working with Anita Ekberg, and that's no spot to die — or even feel like it, you know."

Officials Start Disaster Probe

CARMICHAELS, Pa. (AP)—An official investigation will start Monday to find what caused an explosion that killed 37 miners in Robena Mine No. 3.

Federal, state, U. S. Steel Corp. and United Mine Workers investigators will take part in the probe.

Lewis Evans, Pennsylvania secretary of mines, said a public hearing will be held later to go over evidence turned up in the investigation.

Meanwhile, federal and state inspectors have been assigned to the mine on a 24-hour basis to protect physical evidence.

Reds Live Like American "Imperialists" In Commy Hungary; Food Is Scarce

By LOYAL GOULD

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — "So you are another wicked American imperialist," the Budapest taxi driver said with a wry laugh.

"I'd give anything if I could be an imperialist and leave this workers' paradise."

Istvan R., a burly, good-natured fellow in his early 40s, had picked this reporter up in front of a Budapest hotel. Just before he dropped me, he invited me to visit his home.

"Pick you up tomorrow night at 7," he said.

Istvan's life is in sharp contrast with that led by the members of Communist Hungary's new privileged class. They live in different worlds.

RED "BLESSINGS"?

The worker, for whom communism ostensibly was created, is still waiting for his blessings. On the average, he pays two weeks' wages for a pair of shoes or a month's salary for a suit. He may wait three years for an apartment, despite Hungary's many housing projects.

Members of the elite, on the other hand, are eligible to obtain houses in residential districts in the hills overlooking Budapest. They get preferential treatment in buying the 6,000 to 7,000 cars imported annually. They can buy French fashions and Western delicacies.

We turned down a side street littered with discarded building material garbage and empty bottles. Istvan parked in front of an old building, still scarred from the Hungarian revolution.

Up three flights of dimly lit and rickety stairs. Istvan's wife, Ilona offered glasses of barack, a brandy made from apricots, and a pot of weak coffee to thaw the chill.

"It's not much," Istvan said apologetically, "but it is the best coffee I can offer."

The apartment had two small rooms, a bath, and what could be described as a kitchenette for Istvan, his wife and two teenage sons.

PORK $2.50 POUND

Housing, Istvan said, was his least expense—about $1[illegible] a month, utilities included. His furniture—a couch, two small tables, a stove, four chairs and two double beds—were duplicates of the shoddy offerings in Budapest stores.

Ilona said it would be impossible for the family to live without pooling Istvan's $55 a month, her $40 earned in a factory, and the $65 earned by the two sons as machinist helpers.

"Sometimes", she said, "I am at my wit's end with worry how we can get the simplest necessities. Pork costs $2.50 a pound, if you find it. There are always shortages of eggs, potatoes, fruit and cheese. And things are so expensive. A television costs $165."

DYNAMITE IS RUGGED CARGO

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — Clyde Riggs and Bill Lovell are merry fellows who haul some 20 tons of dynamite each week to Cortez, Colo.

"We take precautions . . . we're plenty careful," says Riggs. "We never pick up hitchhikers, not even gorgeous blondes."

HATES CLAY

Lovell says the job "would be a snap, if they outlawed clay in Colorado and snow in California." He hates clay the way Riggs hates lightning.

Tire and brake troubles are their biggest hazards. Every two and a half hours they stop to check tires and brakes.

Riggs recalls a time hhis emergency brake caught fire. "The fellow who was with me kept screaming at me not to lose my head, not to panic. He was trying to douse the fire with a tin flag he thought was a fire extinguisher." It was put out with sand.

Riggs thinks there are advantages in his work. "When other drivers see our explosives sign, they give us plenty of right-of-way," he said.

SALTY CONSERVATIONIST

MEEKER, Colo. (AP)—For 27 years Gunn Buckingham of Memphis has been working summers at a lodge on Trappers Lake. One of his favorite activities is to ride horseback into the mountain country and toss out salt blocks for deer and elk.
